THE CREATURES AND BEASTS

of the wizarding world are majestic and funny, chilling and loving. They are as diverse a group of characters as the students who attend Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, and just as much a part of the magic of the Harry Potter films. The pages that follow present a selection of the fauna from the films and invite you to reimagine the fiery red feathers of Fawkes, the ghostly hues of the merpeople, the weathered scales of dragons - and so much more.
