JOHN KANE

I need you to help me with this book.

When I say

BOO

you say

HOO

*Can you do that?
Great, let's practise.*

BOO
BOO
BOO

Hang on. You don't have to

CRY

Now, if you see a TREE
you shout

ME

YES,
YOU!

There's no one else here.

OK! OK! OK!

This book isn't all about you.

Here's another thing. If you see the colour

BLUE

shout

STINKY POO

WHAT

did you just

SAY?

OH

NO!

I thought that's what you said.
Can you not say that? It's RUDE.

You're embarrassing me in front of my friend.

This is

BOO

Sorry, I'll speak up. This is

BOO

Are you even listening to me? It's

BOO

NO!

NO!

NO!

NOT STINKY POO

It's BOO, the ghost.
And BOO is afraid of the dark.

So, if it goes

DARK

I need you to

BARK

like this

WOOF!
WOOF!
WOOF!

AAHHH!

Who turned off the lights?

BOOO

is scared.

WHAT?
WHERE?
WHO?

Look, now you've embarrassed

BOO

You're barking again!

OH NO!
Look what you've made BOO do!

That's not nice,

BOO

has run away to hide.

But what's he hiding behind?

BEHIND YOU?

You really think there's a ghost behind you?

Right, one last thing to remember.

If you see

CROWS

hold your

NOSE

What's wrong?

Can you smell something?

A STINKY POO?

Here we go again.

Who did it?

YOU DID A

STINKY POO?

ARE YOU SURE?

OK, now I'm confused. Was it

YOU

was it

BOO

or are you barking like a dog
so you can blame a dog that isn't even in this book?

Please just tell me who it was.

PHEW!

So that's what the smell is.

Just ask

BOO

Well, in the end it's always good to tell the truth.

BOO

needs to go home
before it gets dark.

Say bye-bye

BOO

Now, who wants to read this book again?
