It's a sunny day, and Brown Bear and his friends are going to the museum.

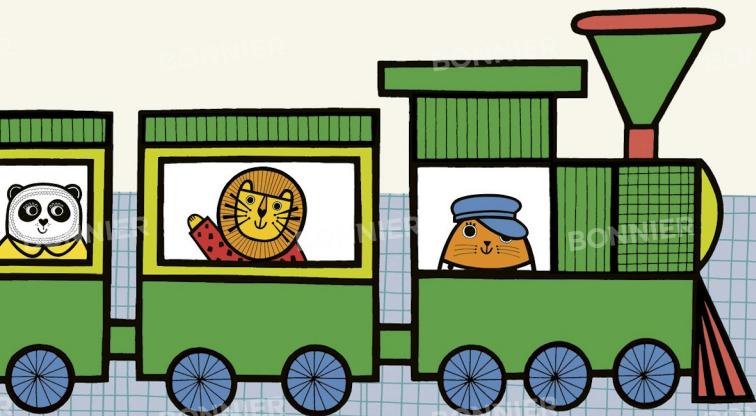

First, the friends visit the ancient history section. Brown Bear is fascinated by the Egyptian mummy!

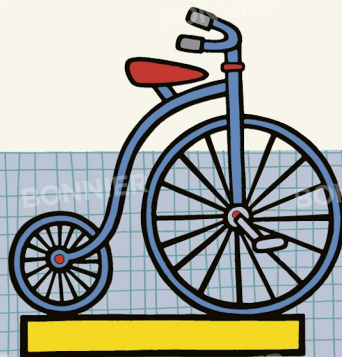

In the transport section, Lion and Panda play on an old steam train. They imagine that Hamster is the train driver.

Biplane

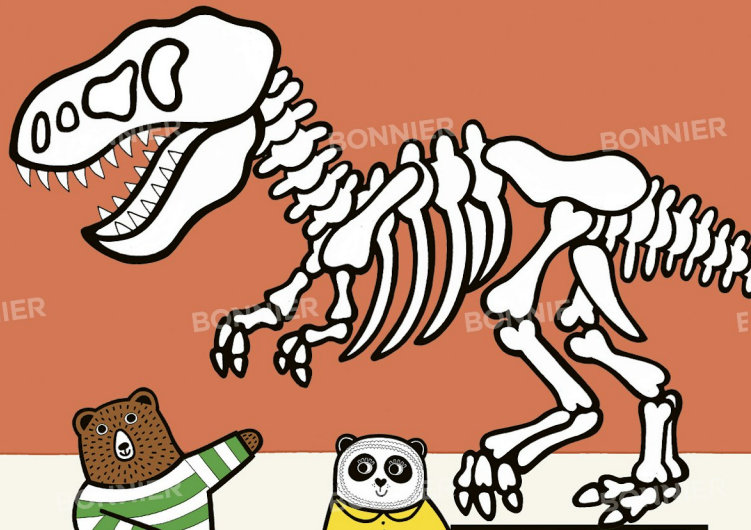

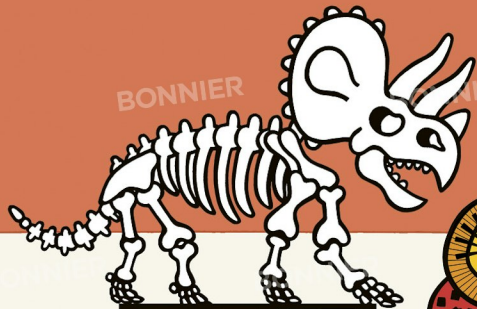

Brown Bear finds an old plane and a bicycle.

Penny-farthing

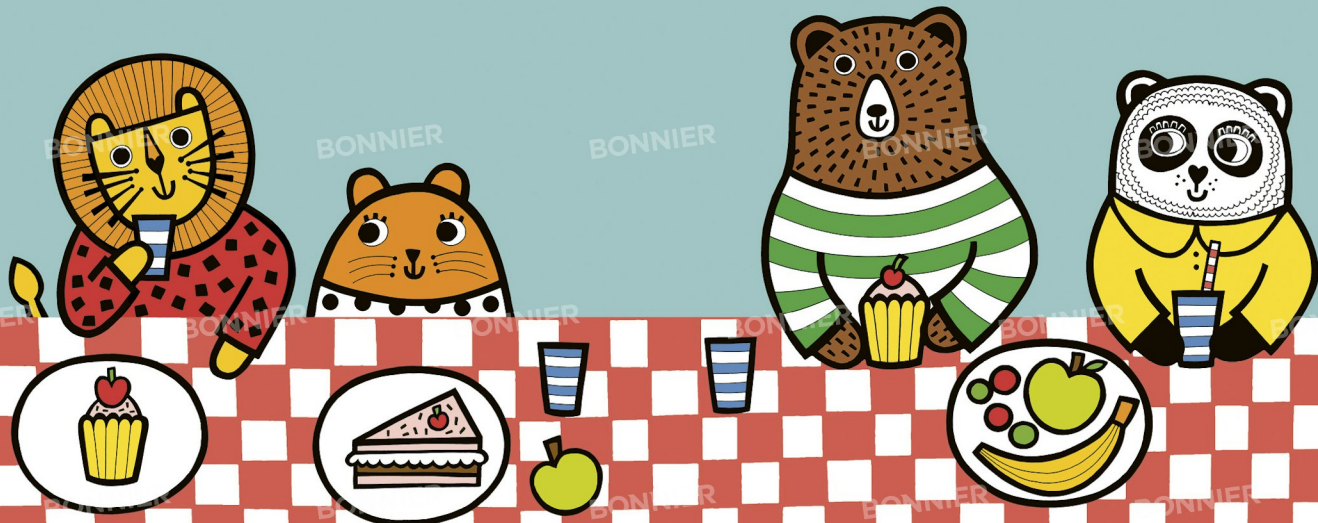

Next, they look at the dinosaurs.
“What enormous bones they had!”
says Brown Bear.

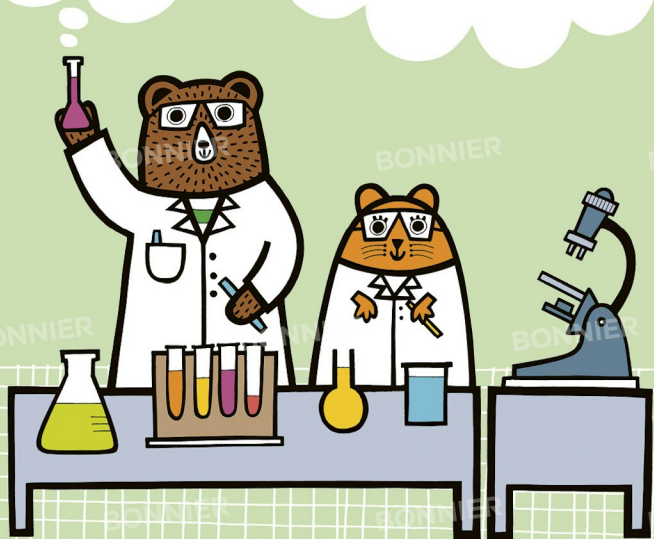

Soon it's lunchtime! The four friends go to the museum cafe and have a snack. They're going to have a busy afternoon.

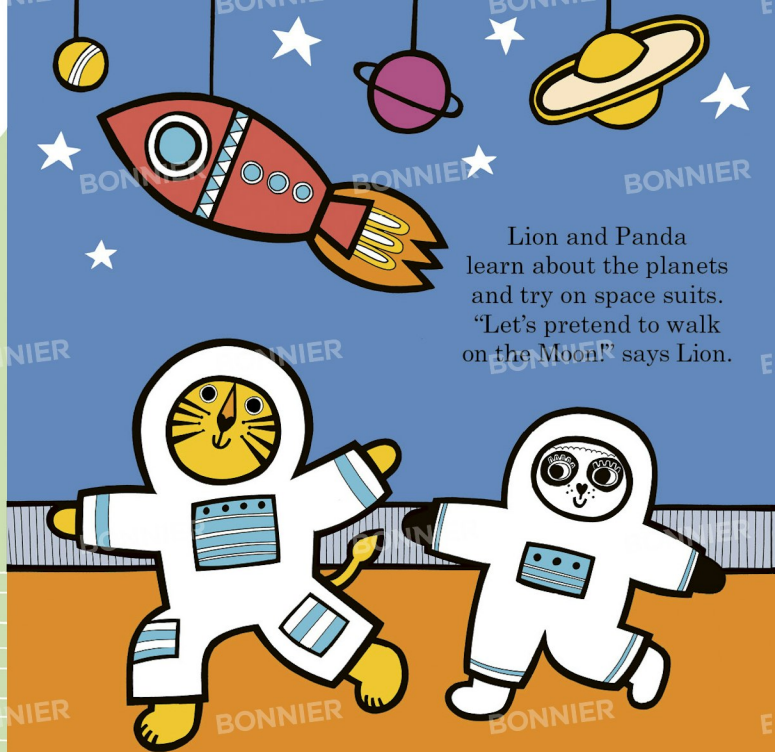

CAFETERIA

After lunch, they go to the science section.
Brown Bear and Hamster put on lab coats and do some science experiments.

Lion and Panda
learn about the planets
and try on space suits.
“Let’s pretend to walk on the Moon!” says Lion.

Next, they visit the art section. Look at all of the colourful paintings and sculptures!

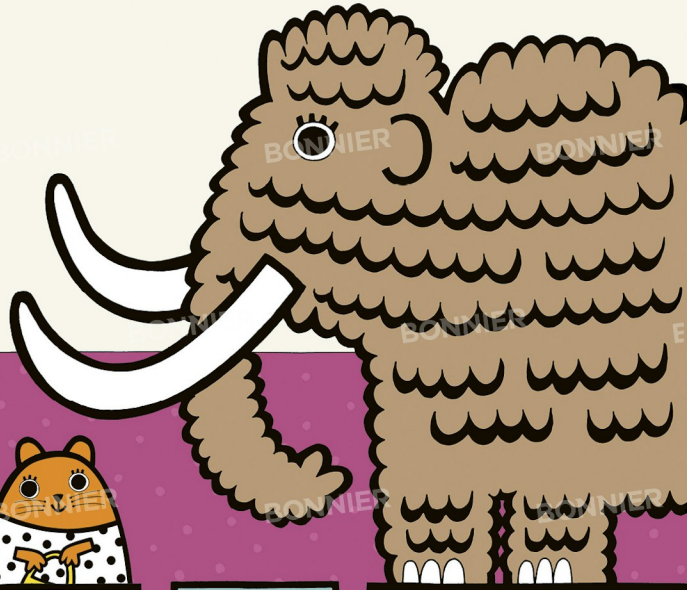

In the natural history room, Hamster and Brown Bear find a woolly mammoth and a scary sabre-toothed tiger!

Sabre-toothed tiger

There are lots of fossils to look at in the display cabinets.

Mammoth

Brown Bear and his friends have lots of fun at the museum. There's so much to do!

They can dress up in costumes...

draw and write...

play with old-fashioned toys...

and play musical instruments.

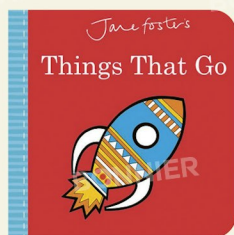

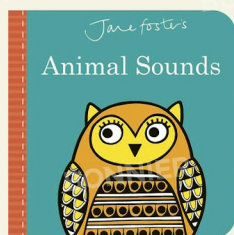

The museum is closing and it's time to go home. Brown Bear and his friends have learnt a lot today. See you next time, Brown Bear!
