GIGANTOSAURUS™

GIGANTO GAMES

It was an exciting day in sunny Cretacia, and the dinosaurs were gathered to take part in the Giganto Games.

“Welcome everyone! Let’s reveal the grand prize.” Ignatius presented a glistening golden trophy made from Giganto’s favourite fruit.

Today's prize is a juicy golden pineapple!

WOW!

What an amazing prize!

Mmmm!

Yummy! I just HAVE to win it.

Mazu and Trey called out the teams, spinning the coconut until each dino's name dropped out. The pairs were Rocky and Totor ... Tiny and Dilo ... and finally ...

Please say Bill ...

Bill ... and Cror!

Looks like we're partners ...

GULP!

Oh no! Bill was paired with the sneaky raptor!

"Listen up, scaredy-saurus," snarled Cror. "You better be ready to win, whatever it takes."

The dinos lined up for the first challenge –
a super-fast running race.

“Ready... set... GO!” Mazu called.
The dinos all rushed forwards.

LET THE GIGANTO GAMES
BEGIN!

As Rocky raced into the lead, Cror sneakily called Bill over to the sidelines of the track.
“Hey Bill,” Cror whispered. “Let’s ride on this bug to the finish line.”

While the pair argued, Rocky and Totor won the race.
“I wish you weren’t so honest,” grumbled Cror, as they came in last place.

The dinos lined up for the second game.
The team that could push their boulder the furthest would win!
“Easy!” Rocky boasted at first. But though he and Totor tried,
their boulder just wouldn’t budge!

Watching the others struggle, Cror had an idea . . .
“Look,” she said, showing Bill. “Let’s disguise this bubble to look like a boulder. Then we can easily push it across!”
Bill frowned. He thought that sounded like cheating again . . .

As Bill thought about Cror’s cunning plan, Tiny and Dilo charged ahead and pushed their boulder to victory.

“Nooo, the prize is slipping away!” Cror cried, furiously.

Now it was time for the third challenge.
The most graceful team to skate across the ice would win.

I want to see your best skating moves!

Be careful not to fall!

Tiny and Dilo went first.
They slid across the ice, spinning,
twirling and finally... tripping!

Then it was Rocky and Totor's turn.
They imagined themselves as beautiful skaters, hoping it would help their balance. But it didn't work AT ALL!

My balance was way off!

Cror grinned. She and Bill just needed to stay on their feet to win! “Here,” she said, tying a hanging vine around Bill. “This will stop us from falling.” Bill hesitated . . . “Fine, just this once. But only because I really want that pineapple!”

That pineapple is ours!

Held up by the hidden vines, they twirled across the ice like elegant ballerinas. “Wow!” cheered the others. “Bill and Cror win this round!”

It really worked!

As each team had won an event, the final challenge would have to be a tie-breaker!

"This is the ultimate test," explained Mazu. "You'll race up a slippery ramp, tackle a tricky obstacle course, then cross the canyon to the finish line!"

Cror grinned and gave Bill a high-five!
Bill looked at his hand - it was covered in sticky goo.
"It's sap," Cror whispered, "to climb the slippery ramp."
Bill nodded, determined to win the grand prize.

“Let the race begin!” yelled Mazu, waving her flag in the air. The teams sprinted towards the slippery hill, but as the others tumbled to the bottom, Bill and Cror climbed it with ease thanks to the sap.

The pair darted through the obstacle course. At each turn, they flipped every signpost around to send the others the wrong way. Bill laughed loudly. “While they’re getting lost, we’ll be winning!”

Finally, they reached the canyon crossing where Bill turned one last signpost . . .

And that was it, Bill and Cror won!
But just as they claimed their prize, a loud cry echoed from the canyon . . .

They rushed over to find the other dinos in big trouble - they were trying to cross the old bridge!

Suddenly, the rickety bridge snapped in two!
"HELP!" the dinos cried.
Bill looked down the canyon and spotted Giganto stomping below, which gave him an idea . . .

Bill snatched the pineapple and dangled it over the canyon edge. As Giganto stomped towards the tasty fruit, Bill hopped onto his head and guided the huge dino towards his friends.

This way, Giganto!

It worked!

Then, he bravely threw his prize into the canyon. As Giganto crouched to eat it, his tail lifted into the air, scooping up the dinos and carrying them to safety!

“You gave up your trophy to save everyone,” said Tiny. “You’re a hero!”

But Bill felt guilty. “I’m sorry I put you in danger,” Bill said to his friends.

“No prize is worth cheating for, not even a delicious pineapple!”

As the friends nodded and gave Bill a big hug, he quickly learned that friendship was the best prize there is.
