YOUR MISSION:

TRACK DOWN THESE WANTED FUGITIVES!

Greetings, bounty hunter! You have accepted the tracking fobs for five of the galaxy's most notorious outlaws. Everyone in the Outer Rim seems to be searching for them, but you look particularly clever. Why, I'll bet you can track them down before any of your rivals!

GROGU

This tiny alien baby, nicknamed the Child, is a true mystery. Why is everyone looking for it, and why is it considered dangerous? Perhaps the Child has hidden powers we don't know about yet. Be on your guard!

THE MANDALORIAN

He never takes off his helmet in public, so we don't know his real name or what he looks like. But we do know he's a threat, so beware of the weapons concealed in his armour.

KUIL

This Ugnaught worked as a moisture farmer and raised blurggs on Arvala-7 before joining the Mandalorian crew. Skilled at working with his hands, Kuil is a survivor who does not give up easily.

GREEF KARGA

You might know this man as an agent of the Bounty Hunters Guild, but when he joined forces with the Mandalorian he became an enemy of our kind. Karga has many connections and can be an elusive target.

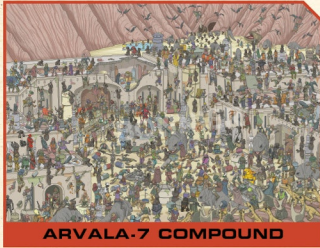

IG-11

All IG series droids were designed to be dangerous assassins and there is no reason to believe that IG-11 is any exception. He never misses a target, so be extra careful when approaching this droid.

ARVALA-7 COMPOUND

The Mandalorian and his accomplices have been spotted on the out-of-the-way desert planet of Arvala-7. This quiet world, home to ranchers and scavengers, has been visited by Nikto mercenaries who are protecting something in their hidden compound. Between the armed guards, your bounty hunter rivals, and local residents who are just passing through, can you identify the targets from your tracking fobs?

JAWA SANDCRAWLER

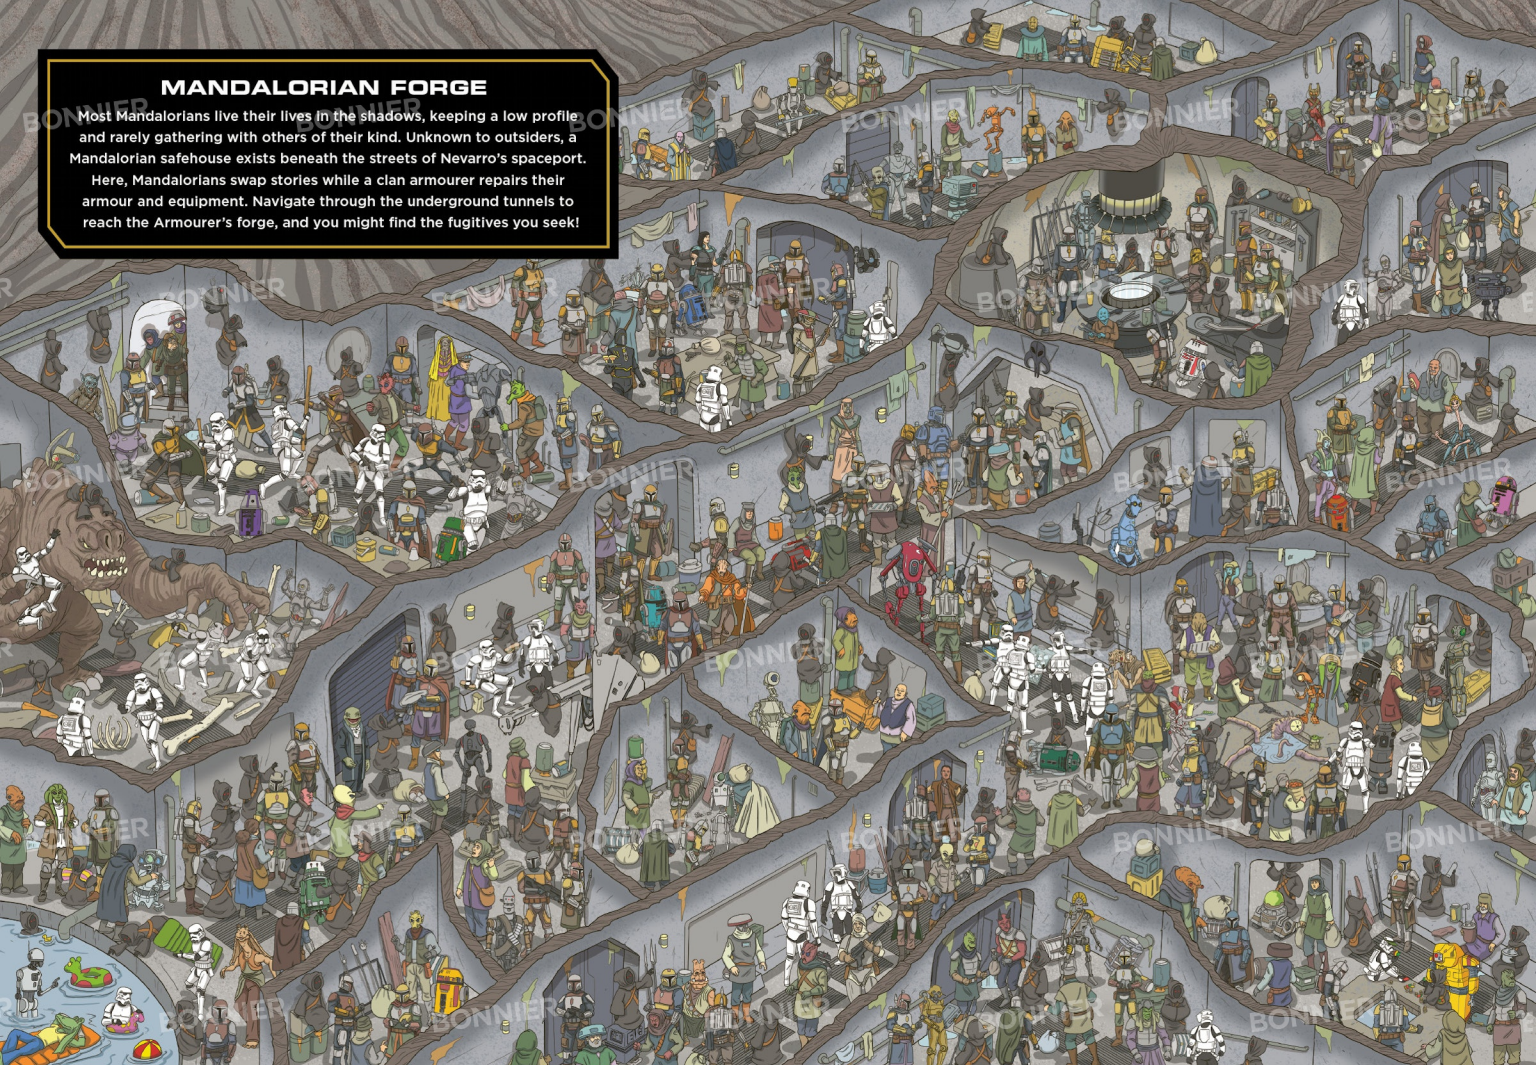

On Arvala-7, Jawa scavengers steal anything that isn't bolted down and stash it aboard their mobile sandcrawlers. According to reports received by the Bounty Hunters Guild, this particular sandcrawler could be carrying some valuable passengers. Do your best to ignore the other bounty hunters on the case and focus your attention on your targets. Don't let them escape!

MANDALORIAN FORGE

Most Mandalorians live their lives in the shadows, keeping a low profile and rarely gathering with others of their kind. Unknown to outsiders, a Mandalorian safehouse exists beneath the streets of Nevarro's spaceport.

Here, Mandalorians swap stories while a clan armourer repairs their armour and equipment. Navigate through the underground tunnels to reach the Armourer's forge, and you might find the fugitives you seek!

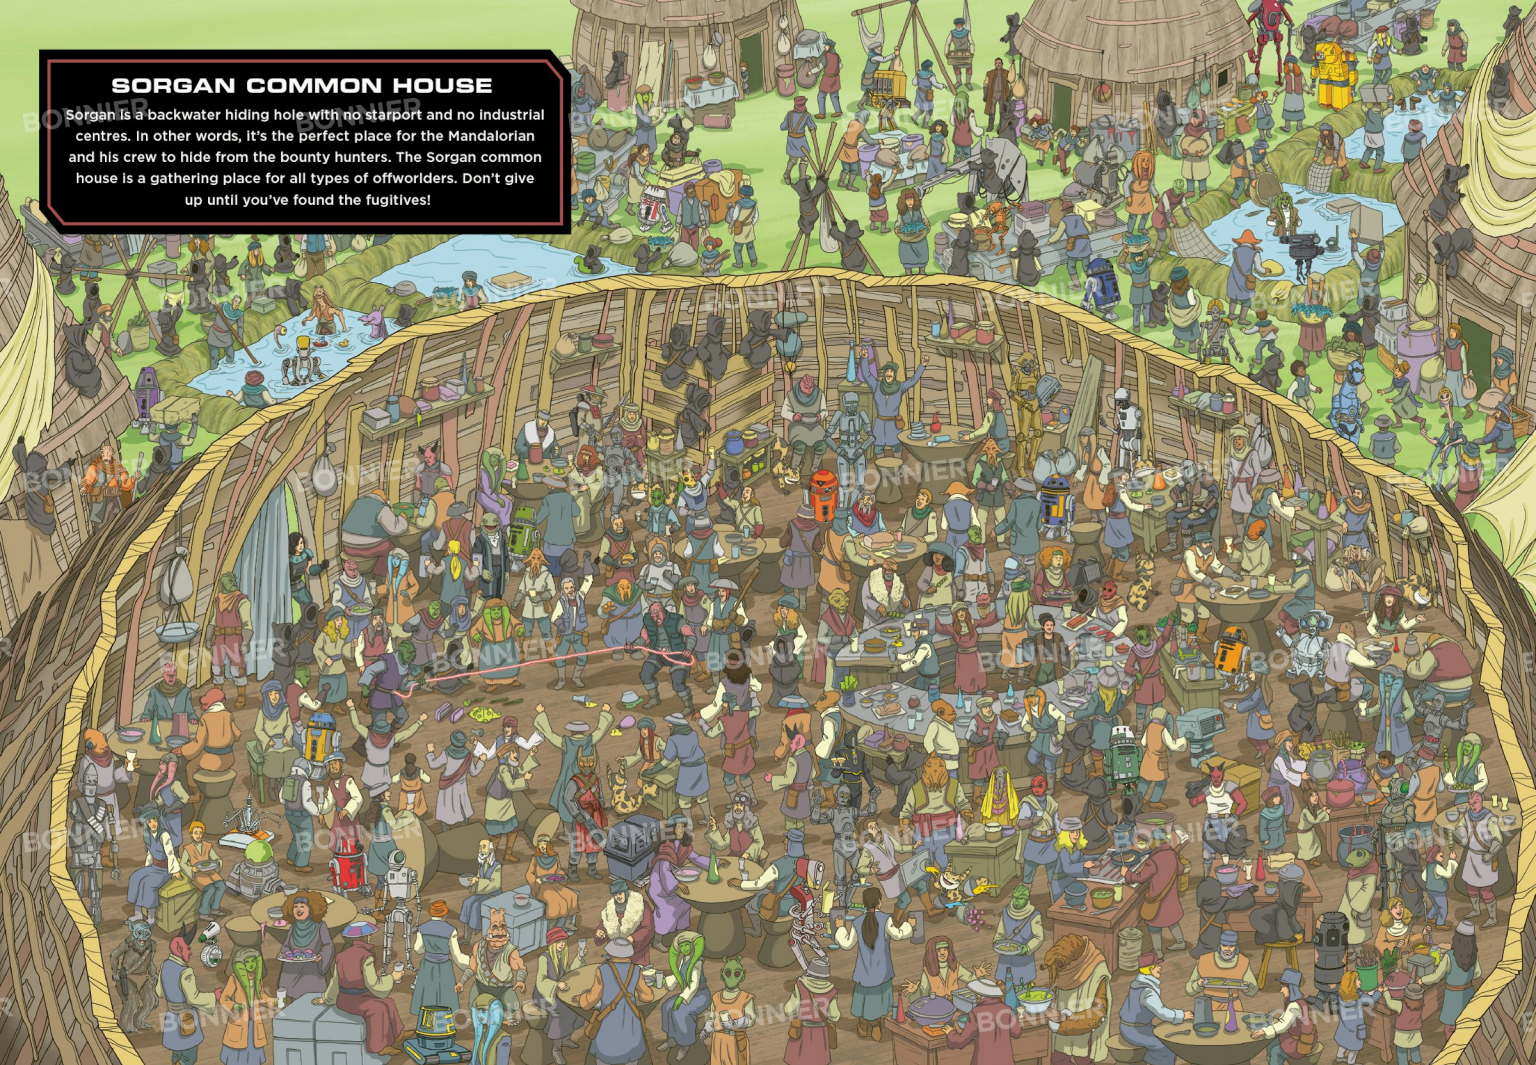

STREETS OF NEVARRO

NEVARRO is a volcanic planet that has become an important operations base for the Bounty Hunters Guild. True, the remnants of the Empire are here, too, but bounty hunters take care of themselves. Reports indicate that the Mandalorian and his cohorts might be active on Nevarro. Scour the merchant bazaar and find out if there is any truth to these rumours.

SORGAN COMMON HOUSE

Sorgan is a backwater hiding hole with no starport and no industrial centres. In other words, it's the perfect place for the Mandalorian and his crew to hide from the bounty hunters. The Sorgan common house is a gathering place for all types of offworlders. Don't give up until you've found the fugitives!

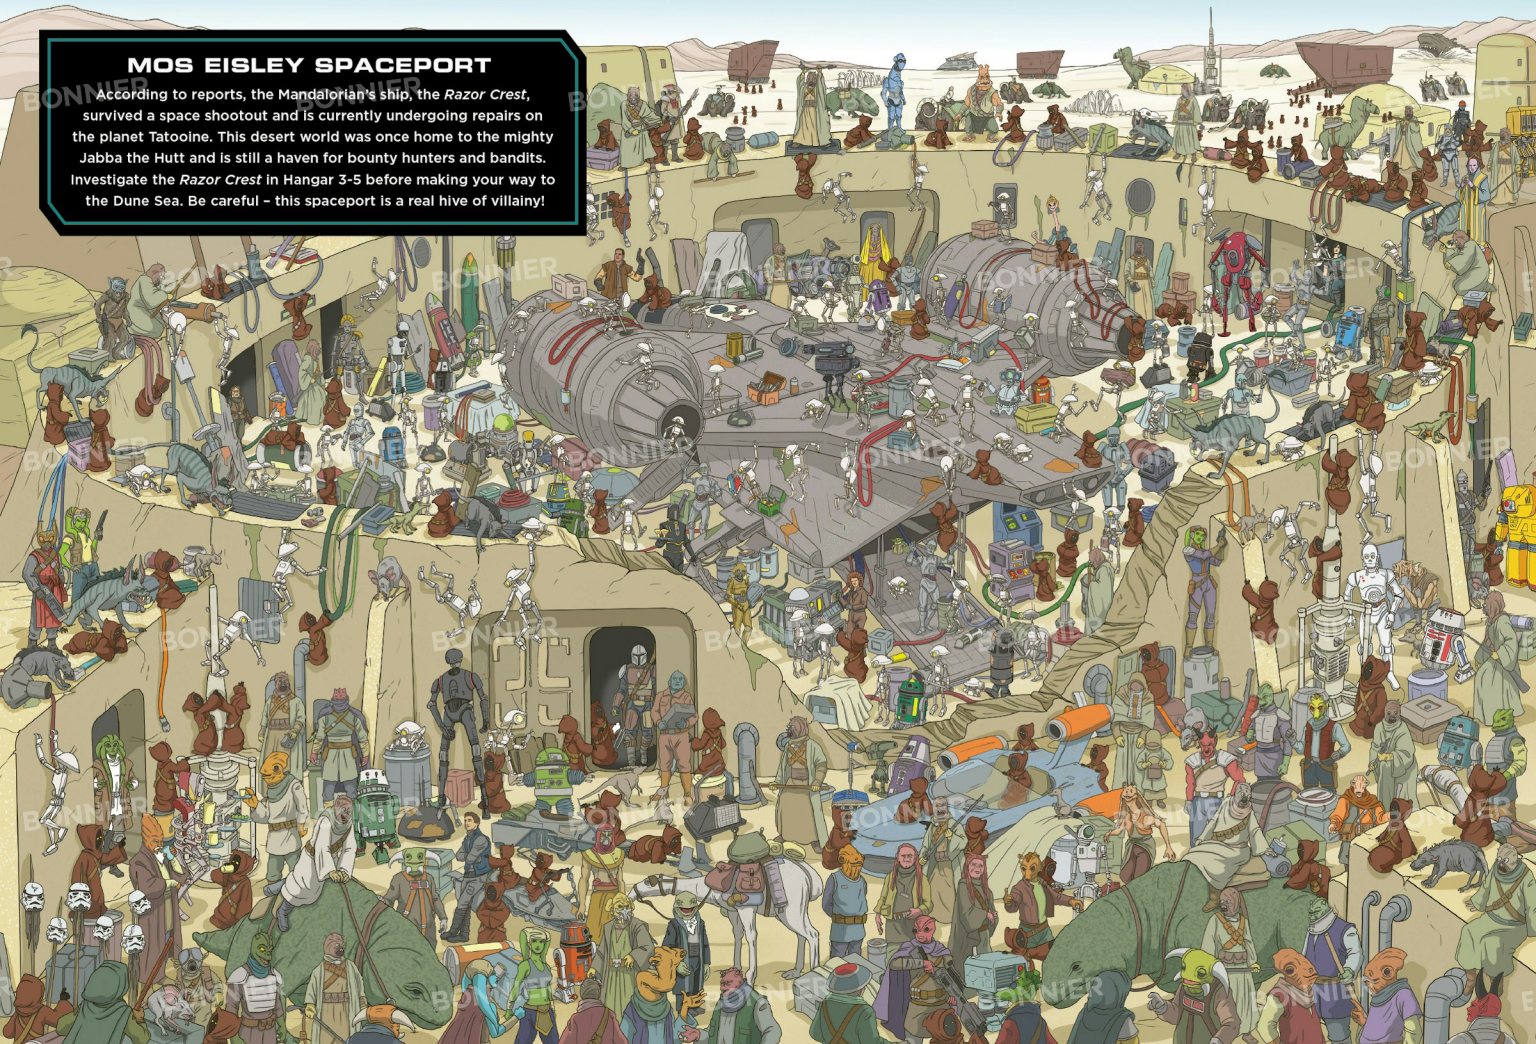

SORGAN VILLAGE

The kill farmers of Sorgan are lucky that the Mandalorian chose to visit their world. A horde of Klatooinian raiders has been terrorising their village with an AT-ST walker, but the Mandalorian and his crew have decided to fight back. The chaos of battle is the perfect time to locate your targets before other bounty hunters can beat you to it.

MOS EISLEY SPACEPORT

According to reports, the Mandalorian's ship, the Razor Crest, survived a space shootout and is currently undergoing repairs on the planet Tatooine. This desert world was once home to the mighty Jabba the Hutt and is still a haven for bounty hunters and bandits. Investigate the Razor Crest in Hangar 3-5 before making your way to the Dune Sea. Be careful - this spaceport is a real hive of villainy!

NEVARRO PUBLIC HOUSE

When it comes to the Mandalorian and his associates, the bounty hunting community on Nevarro has never been more eager to claim a reward. Hopeful hunters hang out in the Nevarro public house, enjoying refreshments while waiting for information regarding their target's whereabouts. There are so many bounty hunters on Nevarro, can you hunt down the wanted fugitives before anyone else?

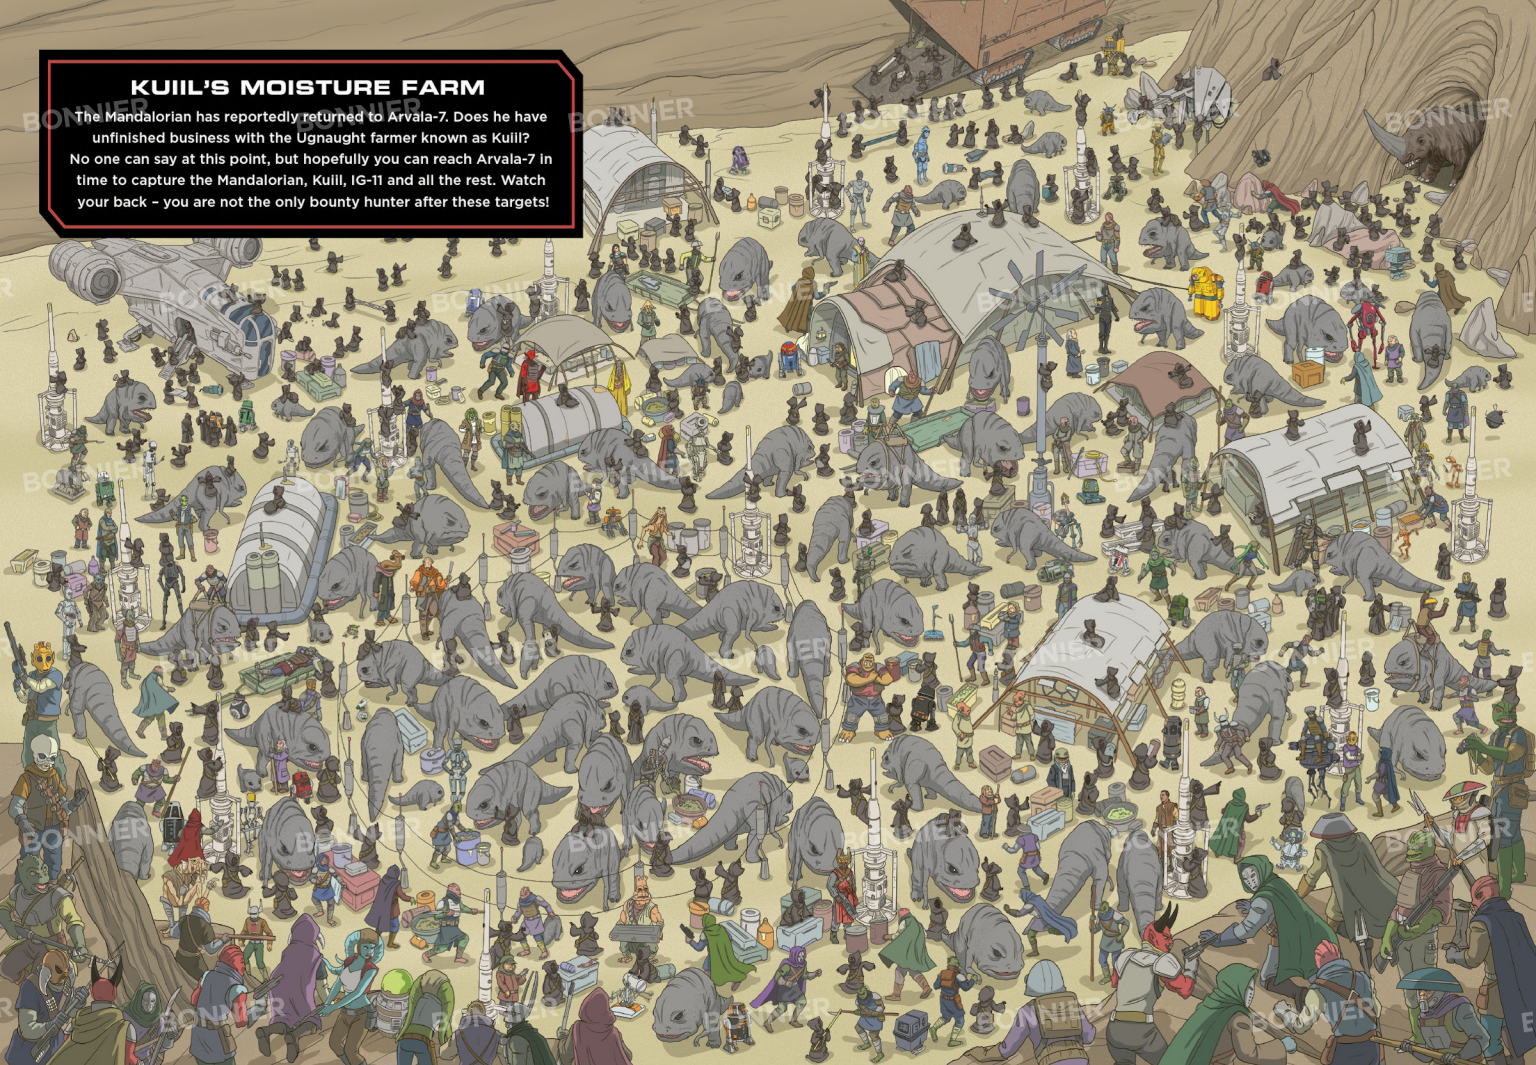

PRISON BREAK

The Mandalorian met up with some "old friends" for the dangerous job of freeing someone from a heavily guarded prison ship. New Republic security droids prowl the corridors while some of the galaxy's worst criminals sit in their cells waiting for a chance at revenge. If any of them get to the Mandalorian first, you won't be able to claim your bounty! You must guide the Mandalorian through the maze from START to FINISH, steering clear of all threats...

KUIII'S MOISTURE FARM

The Mandalorian has reportedly returned to Arvala-7. Does he have unfinished business with the UgnUGHT farmer known as Kuiii? No one can say at this point, but hopefully you can reach Arvala-7 in time to capture the Mandalorian, Kuiii, IG-11 and all the rest. Watch your back - you are not the only bounty hunter after these targets!

IMPERIAL OCCUPATION OF NEVARRO

The Empire now controls Nevarro, thanks to Moff Gideon and his loyal stormtroopers, scout troopers and death troopers. Most bounty hunters have already fled the scene. Even though Gideon possesses heavy weapons like a TIE fighter and an E-Web repeating blaster, are you crafty enough to track down the Mandalorian before the Empire does? Rise to the challenge and capture your targets before they slip away!

LAVA LIAISON

Moff Gideon and his stormtroopers have conquered Nevarro. The only hope of escape for the Mandalorian and his friends is to go underground. As a volcanic planet, Nevarro has many subterranean channels filled with free-flowing lava. Help the Mandalorian steer his droid gondolier through this perilous maze. If you fail, you'll never collect your bounty!
