Bessie's Bees

George Kirk

Ana Gómez

Bessie's head was full of bees,
absolutely BUZZING with them.

And that was just fine.

Bessie's bees were always buzzing to get out.

So every day, they headed straight into the garden.

While Bessie rolled in the grass, the busy bees
explored the flowers.

While Bessie swung in the tree, the busy bees
looped the loop!

While Bessie looked for worms, the busy bees looked for their next adventure.

At bedtime, when Bessie couldn't settle,

the busy bees hummed all her favourite tunes until...

BONNIER they were all FAST asleep!

Bessie and her bees made the best team,
and everything was just fine. But then...

...one morning, Granny took them somewhere new!

Bessie didn't know what she was supposed to DO at nursery.

So she tried watching everyone else.

She put her coat
on a peg.

She sat quietly on the carpet.

And she said,
"GOOD MORNING!"
just like the other children.

Then Bessie noticed she couldn't see anyone else with bees.

She decided it was best to keep hers hidden inside.

But while Bessie played a game,
the bored bees buzzed so loudly...

OH DEAR!

she slid Sunil's pieces down
the snakes by mistake.

And while Bessie built with blocks, the bored bees whirled round and round and...

OH NO!

Taj and Tilly's towers
tumbled down!

Miss Reid said a story would settle everyone down.

But Bessie's bees did NOT settle.

When the witches
cast their spells,
the bees FIZZED!

When the giants
banged their drums,
the bees BOUNCED!

And when the dragons
flapped their wings,
the bees ZOOMED!

Bessie tried SO hard to keep the bees inside.

Now Bessie's head wasn't just BUZZING with bees...

...it was BURSTING with them!

They scattered bouncy balls...

The bees skittled dolls and dinos...

And they splattered paints
EVERYWHERE!

After Miss Reid hurried the other children away, she stayed close by.

Still, Bessie felt very alone...

until Granny came.

Granny knew just how to help - she started to hum.

Slowly, Bessie joined in.
And one by one, the bees flew back.

At home, Bessie sat in the garden and took a deep breath. "My bees don't belong at nursery," she sighed.

"How do I share my bees?"
Bessie asked.

"But YOU do," Granny replied. "And your bees are part of you... Maybe you could try sharing them instead?"

"Now THAT is up to you,"
Granny said.

The next morning, Bessie knew she didn't want to hide her bees any more.

She started by showing Miss Reid how clever her bees could be.

Next, she showed the other children how careful her bees could be.

And most importantly, Bessie told everyone that her bees needed to be kept BUSY!

Busy pouring paints...

Busy sliding down snakes when Sunil said it was Bessie's turn...

Busy balancing blocks at the tippy top of Taj and Tilly's towers.

But bees can't be kept busy inside ALL day!

In the nursery garden, Bessie and her bees showed the other children all there was to do!

While her bees explored the flowers, the busy children rolled in the grass.

While her bees looped the loop, the busy children swung in the trees.

While her bees looked for new adventures, the busy children were having FUN!

And if her busy bees got a bit too FIZZY...

Then Bessie settled down and hummed!

So now, Bessie's nursery is full of bees,
absolutely BUZZING with them.

And everyone agrees, that is just fine.
