

This is the Egg

COVER TO BE REVEALED

BONNIER

This is the egg that travels the earth

BONNIER

BONNIER

BONNIER

that Time sews

BONNIER

This is the thread that hatched from the egg
That Time sews

This is the belly button, once a cord
That swam from the egg

That Time sews

This is the child who goes to school
That clings to the threads born of the egg
That Time sews

This is the child who makes a friend
That she'll love till her time ends
This is the thread that Time sews

This is the father who wakes in the night
To comfort the child

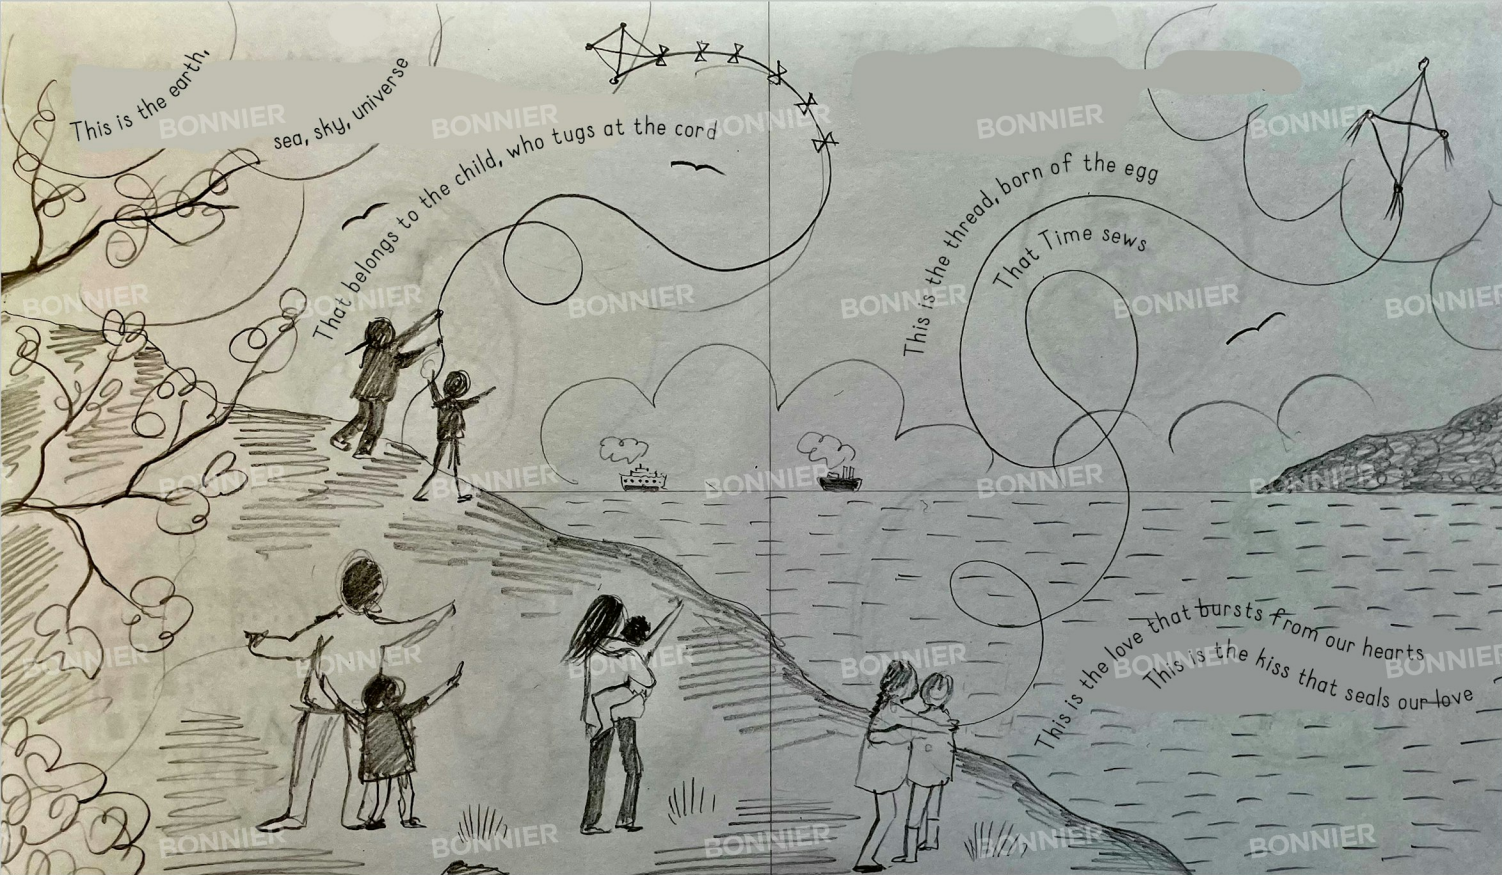

To share the wonders that Time sews

This is the bird that builds a nest
That carries the thread, the song in your head
That Time sews

This is the art that lies at the heart,
was there from the start
That carries the thread, born of the egg
That Time sews

This is the child her Nana enfolds

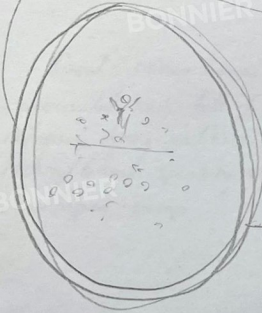

This is the war that came to our door

This is our longing for safety and peace

That grew from the thread, born of the Egg

That Time sews

This is the thread stitching under and over

That will not break

That weaves us back to the lands we leave

Sail

Fly

Land

This is the journey of care we wear

Unwind

Unwind

Unwind

These are the threads that bind

Sew

Time

Sew

Time

Sew

1950's

These are the hope threads
That Time sews

This is the thread that's born of the egg

That Time after Time after Time entwines

same room ? 1980's

This is healing thread born of the egg
To twist and turn, to hatch anew...

This is the egg
A gift from me to you
That Time sews

This is the egg

This is the golden thread spun from the egg

That Time Sews

This is the egg
