I'M A LION

Matthew Scott

I lurk underwater waiting to catch my dinner.

A vibrant illustration of a blue elephant in a savanna landscape. The elephant is shown from the side, with its trunk curled and its mouth open as if making a sound. It has large ears and a small tusk. A palm tree stands behind it, and a green bird is perched on its trunk. In the background, there are yellow hills and a small green bird on the ground. Two red monkeys are visible in the bottom right corner. The word 'BONNIER' is repeated multiple times across the image as a watermark.

I'm an elephant!

I have big ears to keep me cool, and a long trunk to grab food or squirt water.
