

BIG & BRILLIANT WORLD

AYSHA TENGİZ

BIG PICTURE PRESS

COVER NOT FINAL

LONDON

About nine million people live in the busy city of London, the capital of the United Kingdom. Although the main language spoken in the UK is English, there are an incredible 300 languages spoken in London, more than in any other city in the world!

Notting Hill Carnival takes place every summer.

This celebration of Caribbean culture has been running since 1966.

Nearly all school children wear uniforms in England.

There is a delicious and diverse food scene, with food available from every corner of the world.

Home to 3 of the top 10 museums and galleries in the world, and with over 300 live music venues, London has a rich creative scene.

Bus stop

Telephone box

Bridge

bicycle

taxi

station

bus

car

Which way is the ticket office?

The metro system in London is called the tube. This underground network is the oldest in the world and today has over 270 stations.

It's estimated the British drink up to 165 million cups of tea a day!

FISH & CHIPS

curry

PARIS

Paris is the capital of France. It is sometimes referred to as 'the city of light', but this is not just because of its dazzling street lamps and neon signs - Paris is full of wonderful cultural and historical references that 'illuminate' the mind.

Sacré Coeur Basilica

Au revoir (Goodbye)

One of the most wonderful things about Paris is all of the delicious French pastries on offer. You can find them in many patisseries.

chat (cat)

PATISserie

- mille-feuille Paris-Brest
- mille-feuille macaron éclair

The fashion in Paris is world famous! It is home to brands including Louis Vuitton, Chanel, Dior and Hermès.

Historically, Paris was one of the most influential cities in the world for art. Today you can still see works of the great masters including Picasso, Monet, Renoir and Dali as well as some fantastic contemporary art.

The Bouquinistes of Paris (bookellers of Paris) is located along the banks of the River Seine. Selling beautiful antique and second-hand books, these bookellers have been trading for over 500 years!

sac-a-main (handbag)

chaussure (shoes)

rouge (red)

bleu (blue)

jaune (yellow)

chien (dog)

Ouah (Wow)

The Louvre

The River Seine flows through Paris, and has an incredible 37 bridges built along its route. One of the most famous is referred to as 'Love Lock Bridge' where many happy couples declare their love for one another by attaching a lock to the bridge.

Je t'aime! (I love you!)

Noire Dame

La Tour Eiffel

fontaine (fountain)

Merci! (Thank you)

There are over 400 parks and gardens in Paris, making it one of the greenest cities in Europe.

tableau (painting)

BUDAPEST

Budapest is the capital city of Hungary and is home to 1.75 million people. It is an old city, steeped in history and full of beautiful buildings. Its name comes from two different towns, Buda and Pest, which combined in 1873 to become Budapest.

Szeretlek! (I love you!)

Margaret Island

Pinkball Museum

The first tram line opened in 1866. Back then, trams were pulled by horses. Nowadays, electric trams trundle along 174 kilometres of track Stretching for 2,850 kilometres, the Danube is the second longest river in Europe. It begins in Germany and passes through ten countries before flowing into the Black Sea.

St. Stephen's Basilica

Budapest has more underground hot springs than any other capital city in the world. Some believe the water has magical powers!

Buda Castle

Built in 1849, the 375-metre-long Chain Bridge spans the Danube to connect Buda and Pest.

Ez finom! (That's delicious!)

The Great Market Hall

Favourite Hungarian dishes include goulash, fisherman's soup and a type of deep-fried flatbread called lángos.

Köszönöm! (Thank you!)

Egymék együtt! (Let's eat together!)

İSTANBUL

Istanbul, has a long and rich history. Once the capital of the powerful Byzantine and Ottoman Empires, it's now the largest city in Turkey. It's also the only city in the world to straddle two continents: Europe and Asia.

Turkey is famous for its beautifully patterned rugs and carpets.

(I like this carpet)
Bu halıyı beğendim

Grand Bazaar

With around 15 million tourists visiting per year, Istanbul is one of the most popular cities in the world.

Bosphorus Bridge

Galata Tower

Kiz Kulesi / Leander's Tower

Hanım / Turkish Bazaar

(Hello)
Merhaba

(Thank you)
Teşekkür ederim

(I am hungry)
Açım

The name Istanbul comes from the Great phrase stínopolis, meaning 'to the city'. Before this it used to be called Byzantium, then it was Novum Roma, then Constantinople. In 1930 it was renamed Istanbul.

Simit - circle shaped bread covered with sesame seeds

Baklava - sweet and tasty!

PASTANE

(I love you)
Seni seviyorum!

BAKKAJ

Turkish Delight - this jellied sweet delicacy can be flavoured with rosewater, orange or lemon

(I love Turkish Delight)
Türk lokumunu seviyorum

Tea is drunk regularly when socialising. Turkish people drink on average around 3 kilograms of tea per year - more than any other country in the world!

(A coffee please)
Şa Tahve Lüfren.

Ağartma - a refreshing yoghurt-based drink

(That's delicious)
Bu çok lezzetli!

(Goodbye)
Hoşça kal

Sultan Ahmet Camii / Blue Mosque

Hagia Sophia