INSIDE THE MUSEUM

Welcome to the museum! There are all kinds of museums in the world. Let's have a look around.

COAT ROOM

Cloakroom

Museums often have cloakrooms or other places where you can leave your bags and coats. In some, you hand over your bag and get a ticket, then use the ticket to get your bag back. Others have lockers.

Can we have two?

Tickets please

For some museums, you need to buy a ticket online or from the ticket desk. Other museums are free, but will sometimes ask for a donation.

Is everyone ready?

See a show

A special show at a museum is called an exhibition.

Look how small it is!

EXHIBITION

Collections

The word for everything the museum has to offer is the collection. Museums collect items for different reasons. They might be famous works of art, very old or very rare items.

Finding your way

Different parts of a museum show different things. Museums usually have maps to help you find your way.

Let's go here!
