STITCH IS RIDING TO THE RESCUE!

Everything is going great in Kaua'i, until one day . . . the sea waves disappear!

The surfers are sad because there are no waves to ride.

But Stitch has a plan. He wants to build a machine to make the perfect sea waves - but first, he needs some special parts.

So he goes on a space adventure!

Will Stitch manage to help his friends and bring back the waves?

Before we find out, let's meet the characters - there is at least one to find in every scene!

Stitch

Once upon a time, there was an alien known as 'Experiment 626'. But now everyone knows him as Stitch, Lilo's funny pet! He lives with Lilo and her sister, Nani, on the island of Kaua'i. They're like his 'ohana, his family, and love him loads – even when he's up to mischief!

Lilo

Don't be fooled by her young age - Lilo sure knows how to speak her mind! Young and smart, Lilo adores dancing, grooving to rock'n'roll songs and, of course, sharing tons of giggles and silly adventures with her best friend. Stitch!

Nani

Nani is Lilo's sweet and loving big sister and acts as a motherly figure for her. Taking care of Lilo and Stitch is Nani's daily mission. Even when things get a little tricky, Nani works extra hard to ensure they're both feeling loved and super happy!

David

David isn't just an excellent surfer – he's an awesome friend, too! He's always there for Nani when she needs someone to talk to. When he's not riding the waves, David can often be found hanging out with Nani and her 'ohana.

Myrtle

Myrtle is Lilo's age, and they even go to the same hula (the traditional dance of Hawai'i) class, but other than that, they don't seem to have much in common. She can be a bit spoiled and bossy sometimes, but Lilo knows just how to handle her.

Cobra Bubbles

Cobra Bubbles is a very serious social worker who cares a lot about children. When he first meets Lilo and Nani, he's a bit confused by their messy life, but he quickly figures out they really need each other.

Jumba is a super-smart scientist who loves doing experiments, and one of his creations is Experiment 626! He can be a bit self-assured, but deep down, he's got a good and kind side – especially when it comes to little Lilo!

Pieakley

Pleakley is a funny one-eyed alien who thinks he knows everything about Earth ... or does he? The moment he lands on the planet, he realizes his knowledge is a little mixed-up. Maybe spending more time on Earth will help him get it right!

The Grand Councilwoman

The Grand Councilwoman is the no-nonsense leader of the United Galactic Federation.

Even though she can be really firm and strict, she knows how to be fair, especially when it means keeping a new 'ohana united and happy!

NIER

Captain Gantu

Captain Gantu is a tough and quick-tempered alien who used to work for the United Galactic Federation. As a soldier, he's very impressive, but Experiment 626 always manages to outsmart him!
