The Colour monster

goes to SCHOOL

School? What is that?

Is it a spooky castle
filled with monsters and beasts?

Is it up in the sky with rainbows and clouds?

Is it in a scary jungle guarded
by evil plants?

Here's your rucksack, Colour Monster.
What do you think you'll need?

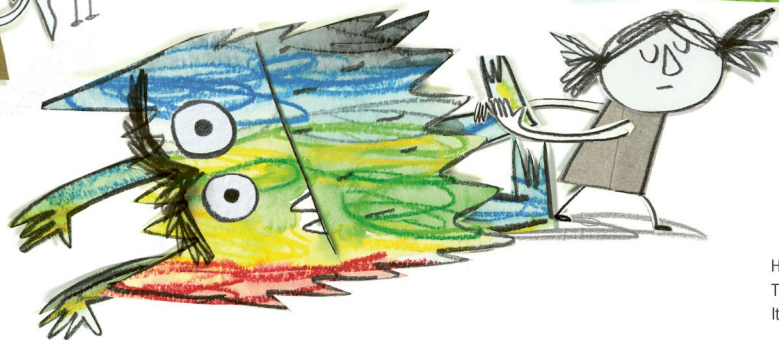

What are you going to do with all this stuff?
You just need your coat and a notebook!

Here we are! This is our school.
I promise we're going to have a great day.

Goodbye,
kids!

Hello, Ms Edwards!
This is my friend the Colour Monster.
It's his first day of school!

First we need to go to our classroom.

Where are you hiding?
