Don't worry, Noah,
let's play inside instead.
Do you like to draw?

Elijah's drawings reminded Noah of the jasmine and apple flowers in the garden
of his old home.

The deep waves of Miss Anoushka's violin washed away a little of the sadness in Noah's heart.

He thought about when everyone used to sing and play the daf together.

The warm, sweet smell
of the almond cake
was just like . . .

when Jida used to make cakes for family
picnics in the garden.
