Moonga loved to follow Grandpa around, listening to him sing.

Gigi scribbled shapes and colours when she discovered a new thing.

Hadda was happiest playing with Ponko sniffing around and having fun.

Lelo would leap and laugh as he danced in the rain and the sun.

Until one day

They were faced with something new, something that made the possible feel impossible...

The children of Possibility were unstoppable, or so they believed...

It was BIG

Far away

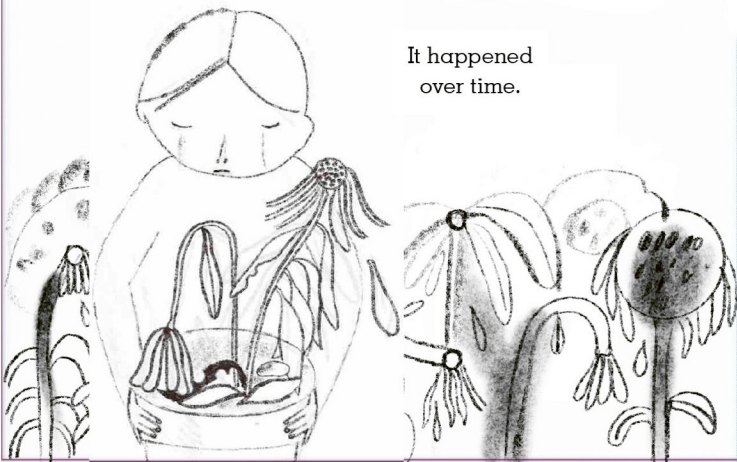

And too near.

And small.

It appeared suddenly.

It happened over time.

It came during the day.

It came at night.
