

GIGANTOSAURUS™

THE DINO-SITTERS CLUB

AS SEEN
ON TV
Based on the book by
JONNY DUDDE

It was a sunny morning in Cretacia and it felt like the perfect day for an EPIC adventure!

But as the d'inos were getting ready to set off, there was a sound . . .

I wonder what we'll discover today?

I'm the bravest dino and I will protect us from any danger!

What's that noise?

In the distance, they could see tiny blue, red, brown and green dinosaurs coming towards them. UH OH – do the d'ino babies want to come too?

An exhausted Archie herded the giggling little dinos towards the four friends.

My tired wings need a rest...

HEE HEE!
HA HA!

HA HA!

The four dinos knew exactly what to do. "Don't worry, we can take it from here," Mazu said, confidently. "We're the BEST dino-sitters in Cretacia!"

Have fun!

Are we, Mazu?

I'm tired just thinking about it!

Archie thanked the four friends and flew off to his cosy nest for a well-deserved nap.

Now Bill, Rocky, Mazu and Tiny were busy dino-sitting, their adventure was looking very unlikely ...

Mazu looked thoughtful. "I know! Let's show the babies around Cretacia."

The friends set off into the jungle with the tiny dinos scurrying closely behind.

HEE HEE!
HA HA!

What shall we do?
The babies have SO much energy!

Dino-sitting is BORINGGG!

HEE HEE!
HEE HEE!
HA HA!

First, they headed to the lake.

“I love throwing rocks that make a big SPLASH!” Rocky told the babies.

“And if we find the Bill Bubble, we could go for a ride and explore what’s underwater!” added Tiny.

The friends were right, the water did look VERY inviting . . .

Before anyone noticed, Zak had crawled right to the water’s edge. Quickly, Mazu sprung into action and swooped Zak away from Terty’s jaws just in time.

Watch out for Terty – she has VERY sharp teeth!

Oooh, a yummy baby dino – perfect for my morning snack!

WATER!

PHEW – that was a close one!

