... she sucks up water,
And sprays it in a cloud.
She watches all the droplets
As they shimmer to the ground.

She sings her song out loud again,
And trumpets just to say,
She's such a happy elephant
And ready for her day!

Where is Little Panda?
He's resting in a glade.
See him gently snoozing
In the cool and dappled shade.

Little Bunny's hopping home,
Her tail a flash of white.
She dives into her burrow . . .
It's time to say,
"Goodnight!"
