

This is the Egg

COVER TO BE REVEALED

This is the thread that hatched from the egg

That Time sews

This is the belly button, once a cord
That swam from the egg

That Time sews

This is the child who goes to school
That clings to the threads born of the egg
That Time sews

This is the child who makes a friend
That she'll love till her time ends
This is the thread that Time sews

This is the father who wakes in the night
To comfort the child

To share the wonders that Time sews

This is the bird that builds a nest
That carries the thread, the song in your head
That Time sews

This is the art that lies at the heart,
was there from the start
That carries the thread, born of the egg
That Time sews

This is the bird that builds a nest
That carries the thread, the song in your head
That Time sews

This is the art that lies at the heart,
was there from the start
That carries the thread, born of the egg
That Time sews
