Welcome to the airport, an exciting place where adventures begin! Airports are bustling hubs filled with fascinating activities and incredible machines.

Watch as planes soar into the sky, and marvel at the busy ground crew loading luggage and preparing for takeoff. Airports are like small cities, with shops, restaurants, and even their own emergency services.

So, grab your stickers and get ready to discover the wonders of the airport. Enjoy your adventure, and happy travels!

Emergency at Sea!

Oh no! The rabbits are stuck on a sinking boat, but help is on the way! Look at the brave lifeboat crew and the helicopter rescuing everyone. Did you know lifeboats are specially designed to be extra sturdy and can right themselves if they capsize? Helicopters are amazing too—they can hover in one place and lower rescue lines to people in need. Emergency teams work together to save the day!

Police!

The town is flooded, but the police are here to keep everyone safe! Officers Rabbit and Mouse are stopping traffic with a big no entry sign to protect commuters. Did you know that police officers help in all kinds of emergencies, not just crimes? They direct traffic, assist with evacuations, and ensure everyone follows safety rules. The lights and traffic cones help guide everyone to safety during the flood!
