

A modern fable about nature's power from the Greenaway Medal winner.

- Incredible tale from Greenaway Medal and Horn Book Award winner
- Over 30,000 copies sold (as of October 2022)
- Mr Barleycorn picks a green baby growing on his land, letting loose the incredible power of nature. When melons grow in the kitchen and apples sprout out of their television, Mrs Barleycorn says the Greenling has to go. But the bounty and beauty of nature has a strange power - the power to bring a whole community together.

But morning brings stranger becomings, beginning a Barleycorn gripe.

She says, "How will we cook breakfast today?" He says, "Them melons look ripe."
