

The Sunday Times bestselling debut from Stephen Mulhern!

- A hugely funny and exciting new novel for young readers, with an empowering central message about how magic can bring self-confidence in the face of bullies
- Closely inspired by Stephen's own story of his childhood in a working-class family in the East End of London, learning magic tricks
- With interior illustrations and a dyslexic-friendly layout, this is a perfect read for children who struggle with reading or are dyslexic
- Stephen Mulhern and Tom Easton have collaborated on the writing of this series, combining Stephen's natural storytelling talent with Tom's children's fiction writing experience
