'Me and Evangeline heard your wish. But you got all you need right there,' he said, landing near her heart and shining bright.

Tiana thought about her daddy saying that good food brings people together. It makes their hearts glow just like Ray was showing her. She could almost hear his voice telling her to never forget what's

When she woke up the next morning, she realised Ray hadn't really visited her. It had all been a dream. But a name blazed in her head like a sign trimmed with lights - Daddy's Front Porch. That had been a place full of love and laughter. She remembered how a pot of gumbo and a place to gather had brought everyone together in hard times and good. No one had gone without food when her daddy

She had her idea. It would be a lot of work. Tiana would need everyone to pitch in, but they could do it. She hopped out of bed, ready for the challenge. Tiana could already see her dream

Along with being the best seamstress around, Eudora was the manager of Tiana's Palace. Tiana couldn't wait to tell her the news. 'Mama,' she said when she saw her,
