ROCKY

Hey there,
ready to play?

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

1. Ask an adult to cut along the dotted line on the cover.
2. Lay the back cover on a flat surface, unfold the flaps, and press out the marked pieces.
3. Carefully tear out the last page in the book – this is a double-sided background card.
4. Hold the flaps of the back cover upright and slide the background card into the slots at the back.
5. To create the characters, press out all the pieces inside. Slot each one into a stand.
6. To create the 3D car, follow the instructions inside. An adult could help you with the careful folding.
7. There are story cards at the back of the book. Remove these to play through their adventures with the Prehistoric Props.
8. Mix and match props, characters, and backgrounds to act out endless stories of your own, and collect the other books in the series to keep the fun going!

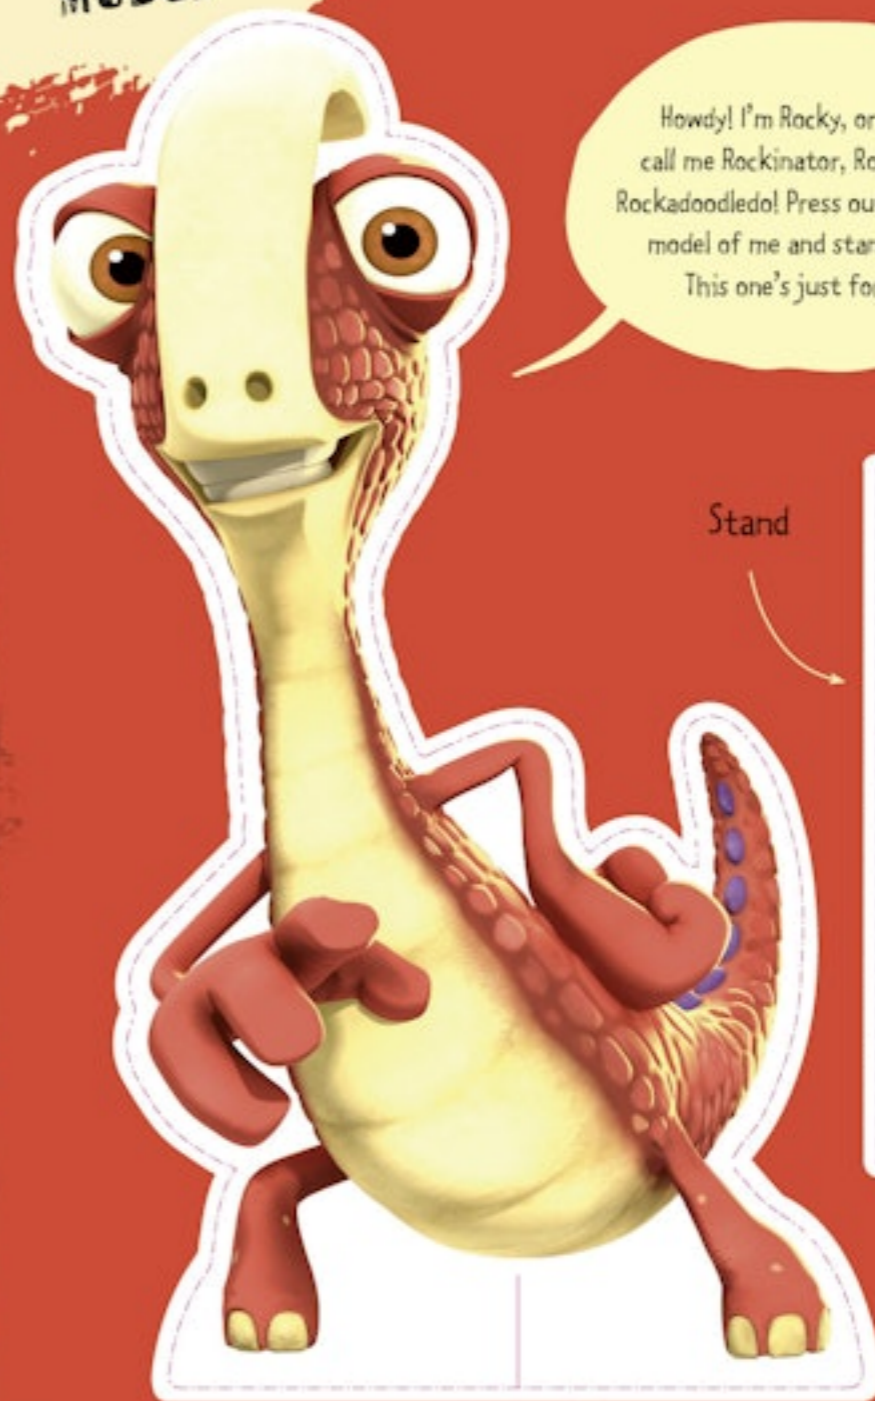

MEET ROCKY!

Rocky's the bravest little dino around, and he's always ready for new adventures! Whether it's climbing Mount Oblivion or swinging through the jungle, Rocky runs toward danger headfirst – even if it sometimes ends in disaster! There's almost nothing in Cretacia that scares him. Well, except maybe Giganto, but Rocky is his biggest fan.

SPECIES: Parasaurolophus
AGE: 9 and a half years old
LIKES: Danger, adventure, Gigantosaurus
DISLIKES: Failing, planning, asking for help
FUN FACT: He can blow through his crest to make a trumpeting sound! The noise seems to make Giganto sleepy.
IN THREE WORDS: Brave, funny, daring

GIANT ROCKY MODEL

Howdy! I'm Rocky, or you can call me Rockinator, Rockster or Rockadoodledo! Press out this GIANT model of me and stand me up. This one's just for fun!

THE ROCKY RAGER

Rocky's racer is the coolest, fastest ride in Cretacia – according to Rocky! Can you help him finish it?

1. Carefully press out the car pieces.

2. Face down, gently crease up the marked lines. The labels will be hidden inside at the end.

3. Match every tab with its slot. For example, slide tab 'a' into 'slot a'.

4. Stand the racer up, and Rocky's ready to roll!

MEET ROCKY'S BEST FRIENDS

BILL

Bill's a brachiosaurus, and he'll grow up to be the biggest dino of all his friends – maybe that's why he's always eating! He can be a little nervous, but his caution and Rocky's courage keep the gang safe!

MAZU

Mazu the ankylosaurus is always researching Cretacia, writing in her Gigantopedia, and designing inventions. Rocky loves helping her build the most exciting contraptions.

Prehistoric Prop:
Slot the wings here!

TINY

This triceratops might be small, but she's bursting with fun! Tiny loves to sing, dance, tell jokes and make friends, and is even more energetic than Rocky.

MORE FRIENDS FROM CRETACIA

I might see danger around every corner – but I can sniff out snacks from a mile!

No problem's too big for science!

Triceratops? More like tri-SING-A-LOT!

MARSHALL

Big, strong and playful, Marshall the stegosaurus is a lot like Rocky, but younger by far and a whole lot sillier!

AYATI

Wise and gentle, the old brachiosaurus Ayati cares deeply for every dino in Cretacia, and enjoys playing in the water with Rocky and all his friends.

ARCHIE

He might not be able to fly yet, but just like Rocky, this ambitious archaeopteryx is determined to achieve his dreams!

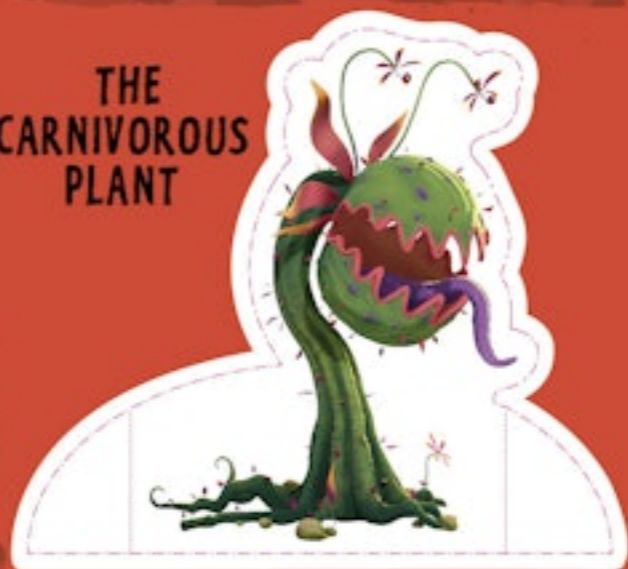

Careful now, little ones – play safe!

Whatever we're playing, I'm in!

Trying to fly only gets me in a flap – but one day I'll soar!

THE CARNIVOROUS PLANT

The Carnivorous Plant isn't fast enough to grab Rocky – but it sure keeps trying.

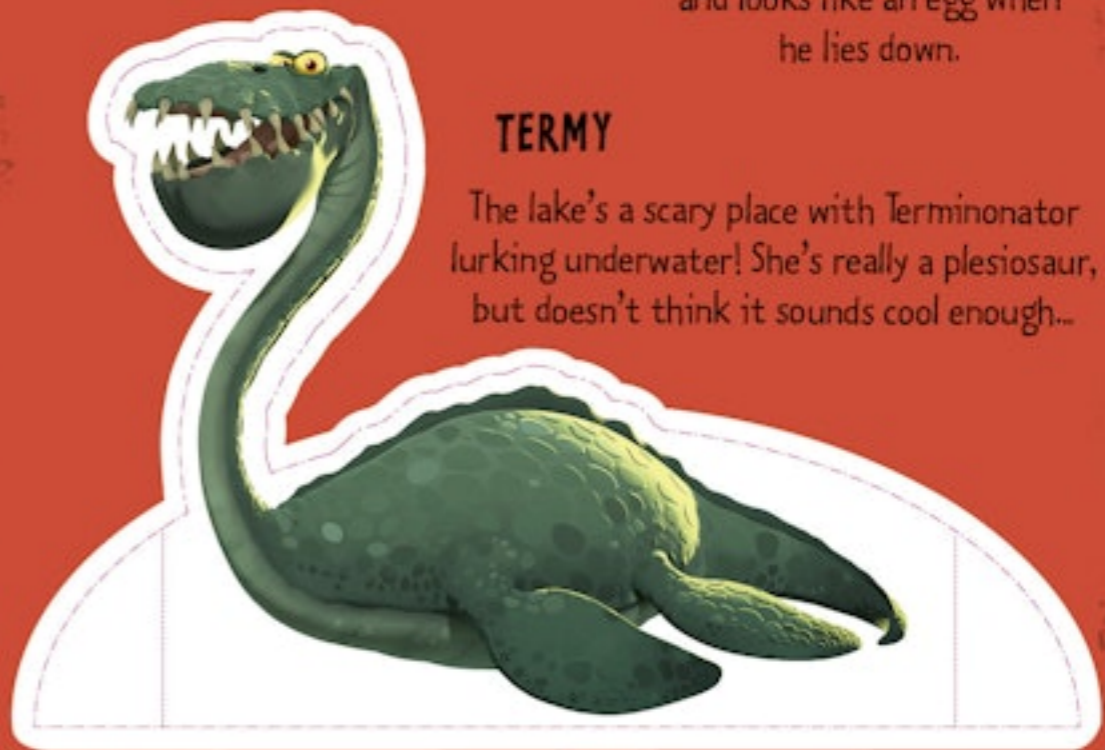

PATCHY

This pachycephalosaurus headbutts his problems, and looks like an egg when he lies down.

TERMY

The lake's a scary place with Terminator lurking underwater! She's really a plesiosaur, but doesn't think it sounds cool enough...

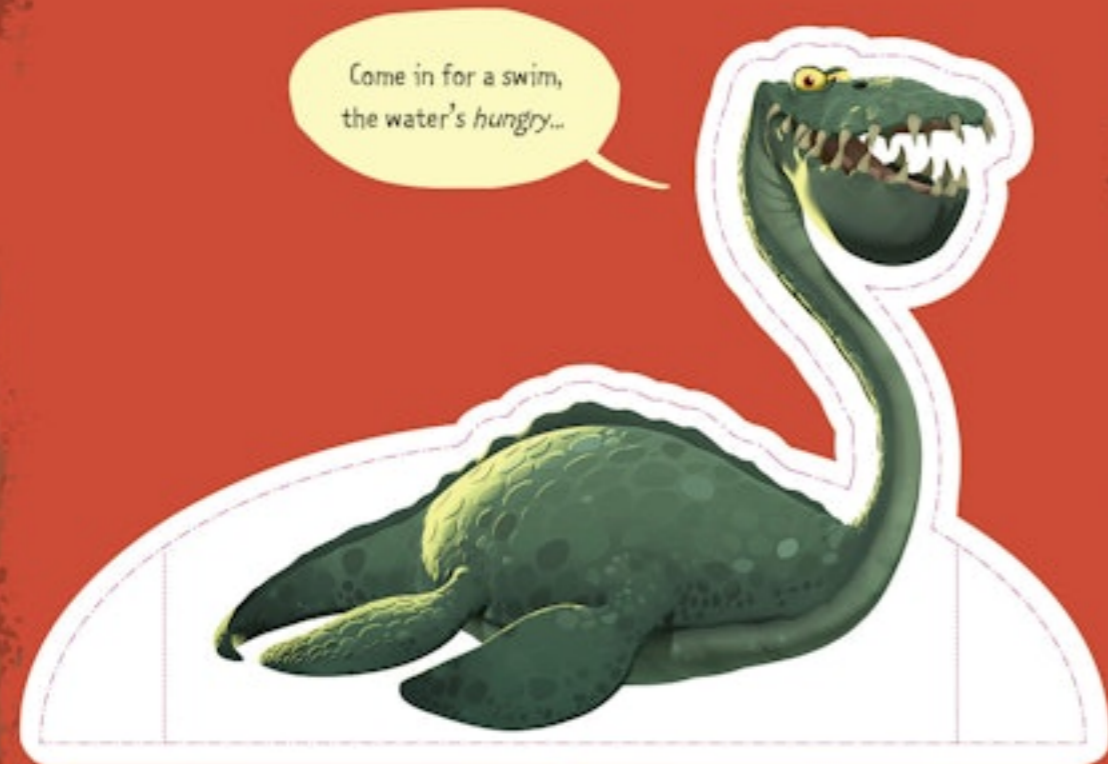

Mind your own business!

SNAP!

Come in for a swim, the water's hungry...

GIGANTOSAURUS

Rocky has always looked up to Giganto – and not just because he's so big! He's taught Rocky that even the fiercest dino should be kind and gentle, and Rocky hopes to be just like him.

There's even rumours of Giganto coming to Rocky's birthday party...

Hey, big guy!

PREHISTORIC PROPS

Use these extra props and decorations to create your own Cretacia! You can place them inside or outside the playset and make the world just as you want it.

STORY CARD*ROCK OUT

Rocky's trying to climb Mount Oblivion faster than any dino before, but the mountain starts to rumble and a falling rock hurts his foot – it's an earthquake from the jungle!

Every other dino runs away, but Rocky limps toward the jungle to investigate, refusing any help from his friends. Soon, he finds out that the earthquake is actually Giganto stomping around. He's hurt his foot too!

Giganto won't let anyone near, even though he's shaking everything in Cretacia.

STORY CARDTHE LOST EGG

Rocky finds a strange egg in a nest without a parent. It's a bit boring, and he wants to play – maybe it's a fun new ball? But Mazu makes sure he takes care of it instead.

They search for the egg's parents everywhere, but Archie doesn't know, Termy only wants to eat it, and it's definitely not from the Carnivorous Plant!

Rocky starts racing around, impatient to get rid of the egg, but he trips over and nearly breaks it on the ground!

STORY CARDTHE BIGGEST HERO

When a treetop game goes wrong and Bill slips off a branch, Rocky swings down and saves him! And when a rolling boulder threatens the den, Rocky... wastes time boasting!

Luckily, Tiny smashes it out of the way, and Mazu gives her a pair of flying wings as a reward, but now Rocky's jealous.

Tiny helps Patchy break a coconut, helps Marshall reach food: everyone thinks she's the bravest! Frustrated, Rocky steals the flying wings to prove he's even braver.

STORY CARDFOLLOW THE LEADER

Rocky wants to stomp around like Giganto, but his friends say it's too hot to play. He sails down the cool river instead, and finds Ayati stuck in the terrible heat, unable to fit in the river and cool off.

Rocky puts himself in charge: he tries splashing her, and bending a tree for shade, but nothing works. Mazu plays relaxing music – but Rocky wants loud drumming!

After all, Giganto doesn't do what anyone says, so why should he?

Oddly, it just rolls back to him, and Rocky starts to like it. When Ayati tries to sit on top of it to keep it warm, Rocky even throws himself in the way to rescue it.

Finally, Giganto storms along, he sniffs and prods it, then gently builds a nest and takes a nap beside it. If a big strong dino like Giganto can be so gentle and caring, Rocky realises that he should be too.

Finally, the egg hatches: it's a little red parasaurolophus, just like Rocky! He accepts that it's cool to be kind, and takes the egg home to his herd.

Mazu finds a healing flower to help Giganto, but they can't get close to his foot. Rocky remembers how his mother helps him feel better, and uses his crest to make a calm mooring noise. At last, Giganto starts to relax.

Rocky tries to climb a tree to get closer. His sore foot stops him, but now he's seen that even the toughest dinos need help sometimes, he lets his friends lift him up.

Rocky comforts Giganto while Mazu heals the big dino's foot - and a grateful Gigantosaurus hurls Rocky right to the top of Mount Oblivion, faster than any dino before!

Annoyed that his friends won't do what he says, Rocky runs off on his own to bring ice back from the Frozen Lands, but he can't move fast enough on his own to stop it melting.

That's when he sees Giganto patiently trotting along behind a group of tiny dragonflies, following them to a refreshing waterfall.

Rocky climbs up to divert the waterfall into the river, but gets stuck. Accepting that even Giganto needs his friends, he asks Bill, Tiny and Mazu to help him down.

Together, they fan Ayati through the hot day, and fall asleep cool together.

But his first flight goes all wrong and he crashes into hungry Temy's lake! Thankfully, Tiny's nearby to fish him out just in time.

The next day, there's a rumble on the savannah. Giganto's chasing birds, and he's storming towards their den!

Rocky runs out to lead Giganto away while his friends watch from the den roof, but he only makes Giganto bump right into it, and Tiny gets stuck on the big dino's head.

Rocky flies up to rescue her, and they soar away to safety, happy that they're both heroes after all.

Carefully tear this page out and slide it into the back of the playset to change the scene.
