HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

1. Ask an adult to cut along the dotted line on the cover.
2. Lay the back cover on a flat surface, unfold the flaps, and press out the marked pieces.
3. Carefully tear out the last page in the book – this is a double-sided background card.
4. Hold the flaps of the back cover upright and slide the background card into the slots at the back.
5. To create the characters, press out all the pieces inside. Slot each one into a stand.
6. To create the 3D car, follow the instructions inside. An adult could help you with the careful folding.
7. There are story cards at the back of the book. Remove these to play through their adventures with the Prehistoric Props.
8. Mix and match props, characters, and backgrounds to act out endless stories of your own, and collect the other books in the series to keep the fun going!

MEET TINY!

Tiny's a one-dino party of fun and games! She fills her days singing songs, painting pictures and caring for beautiful flowers and plants. There's no one she won't be friends with, and she firmly believes that everyone has a kind side if given the chance – even Giganto. Tiny can find it hard to be serious when it's needed, but she usually skips out of trouble smiling.

SPECIES: Triceratops
AGE: 9 years old
LIKES: Singing, painting, making friends
DISLIKES: Serious business, danger, mean dinos
FUN FACT: She might be small, but Tiny's one tough-ceratops: she's the strongest dino of the group!
IN THREE WORDS: Joyful, friendly, imaginative

GIANT TINY MODEL

I bet we'll be the best of friends – the fun is set to never end! Press out this GIANT model of me and stand me up. This one's just for fun!

EXCITED

Today's going to be the best day ever!

Would you like a flower?
I picked this one just for you!

KIND

Oh, life's a game that never stops, when you're a tri-cera-tops!

MUSICAL

FRIGHTENED

Maybe it's friendly,
but those teeth
don't look it!

CAREFUL

I'm the best at hide-and-seek, just don't make me laugh!

CREATIVE

You're going to love your portrait.
No peeking till it's done!

THE TINY TRIKE

Tiny's trike is a three-wheel fun-mobile! With a bit of help, she'll be singing songs at the speed of sound. Can you help her finish it?

1. Press out the car pieces.

2. Place them face down, and gently crease the marked lines. The labels will all be hidden inside the car at the end.

3. Turn it over again. Carefully match every tab with its slot, using the labels: for example, slide tab A into slot A.

4. Stand the trike up. Tiny's ready for the track!

MEET TINY'S BEST FRIENDS

BILL

Bill's a brachiosaurus, and he'll grow up to be the biggest dino of all his friends – maybe that's why he's always eating! Tiny's happiness and optimism always help him relax and have fun.

MAZU

Mazu the ankylosaurus is always researching Cretacia, writing in her Gigantopedia, and designing inventions. She's usually a bit more serious than Tiny, but she's learning to let herself be silly.

ROCKY

Rocky's the toughest parasaurolophus around, according to him! He loves making up new games with Tiny, though Rocky is much more daring.

Tiny, do you know a song that can stop a charging Giganto? I'd like to be prepared...

Let's research what makes each dino laugh!

Hide-and-seek?
Chase the coconut?
Let's play!

MORE FRIENDS FROM CRETACIA

TREY

Trey is Tiny's big brother, a teenage triceratops who doesn't always understand her sparky imagination, but he'll do anything for his little sister.

HEGAN

Hegan's the fastest pterosaur in the sky – but not too good on her feet! Helpful, professional and fast as the wind, Hegan loves taking Tiny on flights around Cretacia to see the beautiful views.

TOTOR

Totor's a ravenous raptor – but he's kind when he's given a chance and Tiny knows that he loves to play beautiful music.

You want to get to Tiny, you'll have to go through me!

If you look to your left, we're now flying over the beautiful savannah oasis. What a view!

Want to play some tunes? Don't tell my sister, but I've written a new one.

DILO

This dilophosaurus loves practical jokes, but he goes too far sometimes. Tiny's teaching Dilo to keep his jokes kind.

CROR

Cror's a tricky raptor who doesn't trust anyone except her brother Totor. She's a tough nut to crack, but Tiny's determined to find the nice, happy dino inside her.

TERMY

The lake's a dangerous place with Terminator lurking under the water! Tiny's tricks are the best way to confuse this scary plesiosaurus.

Whatever you want, it's mine!

Mean? It was only a joke! You're no fun.

Sure, I'd love to play a game. And if I win, you're coming for a swim...

GIGANTOSAURUS

Giganto is the biggest, loudest, stompiest dino in Cretacia, but Tiny's not scared of him – beyond all the roaring, she's sure he's friendly! She'll always take his side, is happy to help when he's in trouble, and invites him to all their parties. Giganto even shows up to most of them to see the fun Tiny has in store, even if he ends up eating most of it.

Ooh! So tall!

PREHISTORIC PROPS

STORY CARD

BECAUSE TRICERATOPS!

When Trey finds Tiny hiding from Giganto, he sets her the Triceratops Trial to prove her strength: tackling a dead tree, tossing it up in the air, shaking the earth with massive stomps, and wrestling Trey across a line.

But Tiny doesn't like being so serious, and even after all her practising, she can't help having fun! She see-saws with the tree, tickles Trey over the line, and dances instead of stomping.

Unfortunately, if she can't pass the trial and prove her independence, she'll be taken away from her friends to go live with her herd.

BROTHERS AND SISTERS

The little dinos are playing hide-and-seek, and Trey finds everyone except Tiny. She's found a tip-top-triceratops hiding-spot, but strange music leads her into the jungle...

It's Totor playing a flute! But his sister Cror thinks raptors should only be working on their roar. Tiny tells him how much she loves his music, and she teaches him to play together.

When Trey and Cror find them, they're not happy, and forbid them from spending any time with each other. Trey says Totor is dangerous; Cror thinks Tiny is a goody-goody.

THE BIGGEST HERO

Oh, life's a game that never stops, when you're a triceratops! Tiny has a case of the sillies, but her singing wakes Gigantosaurus. He grumbles and groans, and Mazu spots an aching tooth!

They need to find him a healing oasis flower, and a long stick to get it on his tooth. Mazu and Tiny set out for the flower, while Rocky and Bill search for a stick.

But Tiny starts playing with Dilo instead of guarding Mazu picking flowers – and a giant scorpion creeps up behind them! Mazu scares it away, and Tiny resolves to be more serious.

STORY CARD

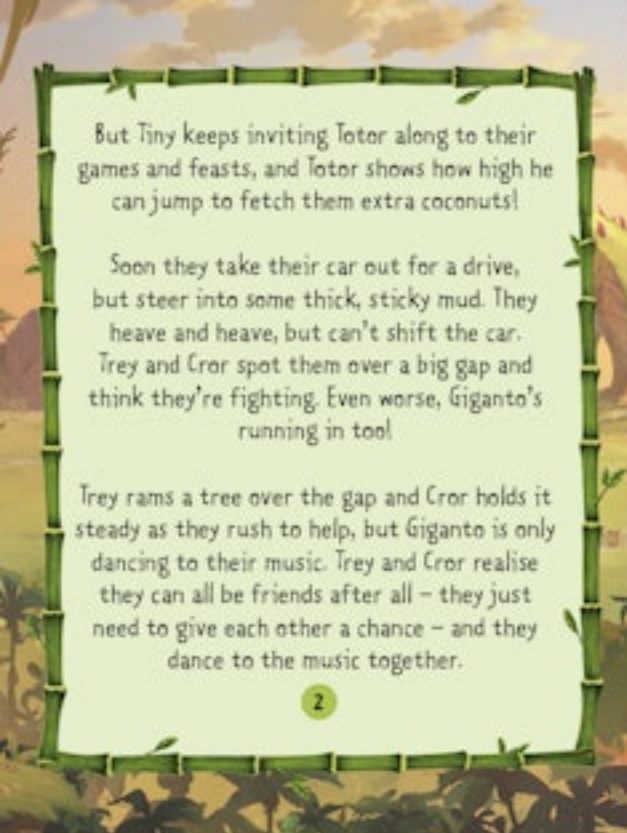

A TINY TRIUMPH

While Rocky and Mazu play "Who can get closest to Giganto?", Tiny prefers to paint him instead. But her art show is interrupted by a volcanic eruption of lava, and Hegan swoops them off into the sky.

They spot a hidden oasis, and Tiny draws a map to it as they fly. It's guarded by Carnivorous Plants, so they disguise themselves as flowers using Tiny's art supplies to sneak past, and find it's a beautiful place to relax!

But they're not the only ones who've found it, and Giganto storms in desperately thirsty!

1

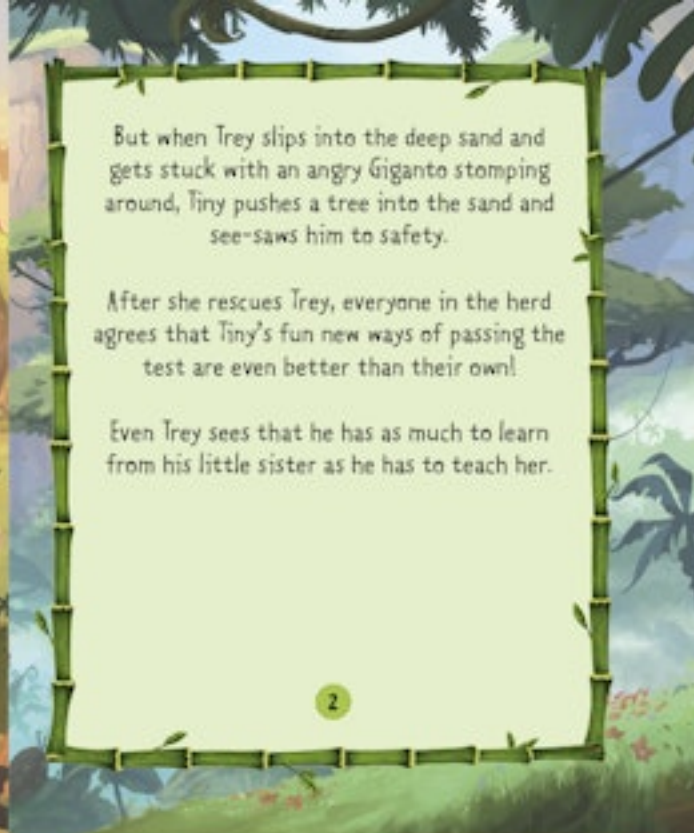

But Tiny keeps inviting Totor along to their games and feasts, and Totor shows how high he can jump to fetch them extra coconuts!

Soon they take their car out for a drive, but steer into some thick, sticky mud. They heave and heave, but can't shift the car. Trey and Cror spot them over a big gap and think they're fighting. Even worse, Giganto's running in too!

Trey rams a tree over the gap and Cror holds it steady as they rush to help, but Giganto is only dancing to their music. Trey and Cror realise they can all be friends after all – they just need to give each other a chance – and they dance to the music together.

But when Trey slips into the deep sand and gets stuck with an angry Giganto stomping around, Tiny pushes a tree into the sand and see-saws him to safety.

After she rescues Trey, everyone in the herd agrees that Tiny's fun new ways of passing the test are even better than their own!

Even Trey sees that he has as much to learn from his little sister as he has to teach her.

2

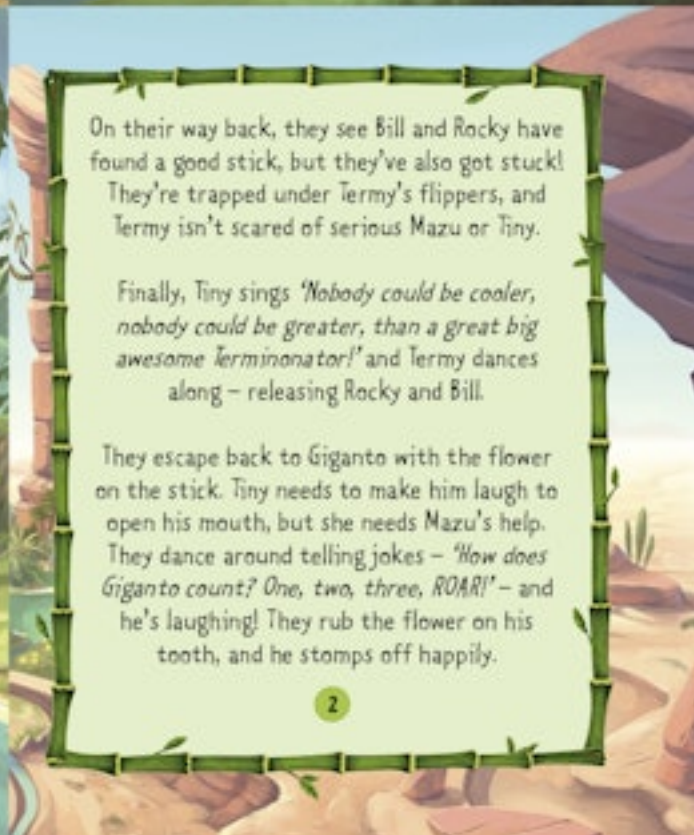

Tiny has to gather up all the shiny river rocks to catch Hegan's eye again. Her friends weren't happy about her ideas before, but with Giganto running nearer, they're keen to help.

Tiny's plan works! The sunlight hits the shiny rocks and Hegan swoops down to save them.

Safe at home, they finally stage Tiny's art show, and as Giganto leans in to inspect his portrait, Tiny spots a chance to win their game of 'Who can get closest to Giganto?', and pats him right on the claw!

2

On their way back, they see Bill and Rocky have found a good stick, but they've also got stuck! They're trapped under Termy's flippers, and Termy isn't scared of serious Mazu or Tiny.

Finally, Tiny sings 'Nobody could be cooler, nobody could be greater, than a great big awesome Terminator!' and Termy dances along – releasing Rocky and Bill.

They escape back to Giganto with the flower on the stick. Tiny needs to make him laugh to open his mouth, but she needs Mazu's help. They dance around telling jokes – 'How does Giganto count? One, two, three, ROAR!' – and he's laughing! They rub the flower on his tooth, and he stomps off happily.

2

Carefully tear this page out and slide it into the back of the playset to change the scene.
