When Daddy works from home

Paul Schofield & Anna Terreros-Martin

Daddy has to go to work,
But it's from home today.
So I'll be right here, in the house,
And never far away.

When I am sitting at my desk
I see you with your toys.
And then, no matter where you are
I always hear your noise.

Sometimes when I work,
I have to really, really think.
Do you know what would help me most?
Yes – lots of tea to drink!

When we are all together,
There's no problem can't be solved,
And even though I've got to work,
I try to be involved.

I'm shutting my computer now.
It's time for lunch – let's eat!
We'll sit down in the grass to have
A special picnic treat.

My meetings can go on and on...
There's lots to talk about.
And even though I shut the door,
I still can't keep you out!

I wish that I could play all day,
But I have work to do.
Though I'm not with you all the time,
I'm always here for you.

Some days I still go out to work,
But then I hurry back,
To be with you, to keep you safe,
And help you stay on track.

And finally, my work is done –
There's nothing more to do.
The most important thing to me,
Is spending time with you.
