Silly Doggy!

by Adam Stower

One morning, Lily saw something wonderful in her garden.

It was big, brown and hairy.

It had four legs, a tail and a big, wet nose,
and Lily had ALWAYS wanted one.

Doggy!

Up close, he was quite big...

for a dog

And a bit grumpy, too.

But Lily thought
he was lovely.

He just needed someone to look after him,
someone like Lily. So that's just what she did.

After a busy day together,
Lily and Doggy got home in time for tea.
Doggy was so much fun, Lily was sure that Mum would let her keep him.

She didn't.

When Lily told her, Mum said Doggy would have a home of his own, with people who would be missing him.

Lily supposed she was right. Probably.

So, to help Doggy's owners find him,
Lily made a poster...

FOUND!

One very silly doggy.

Colour: brown

Size: big and shaggy

Tail: short

Paws: ~~b~~g very big

Legs: yes

Smell:
wet blanket
and biscuits

He is silly because:

firstly, he never eats his dinner.

He likes going to the park...

but he doesn't like walkies.

He's no good at tricks...

and he's terrible at playing fetch.

He never, ever, ever...

Silly doggy.

does what you tell him.

He can get sticky and mucky,
and he doesn't like bathtime.

But when he's washed, he looks very pretty.

His favourite thing is scratching.

My favourite thing is him.

x Lily

When the poster was ready,
Lily and Doggy went out to stick it up.

Found!

one Very silly doggy!

Lily x

Secretly, Lily hoped no one would see it.

But, of course, someone did.

That night, even though she knew he was happy back in his own home,
Lily felt sad that Doggy was gone.

But, the next morning,

she saw something
WONDERFUL
in the garden...

Kitty!

...to report some keepers at the Safari
one of their favourite animals. "He's learned some new tricks," said the head keeper, "and will do anything for a tummy-rub!"
The public is warned that other animals from the Park are still at large.

PURR-FECT SCORE

Local girl Lily and 'Kitty' were the proud winners of this year's cat show.
"What Kitty lacked in obedience, she made up for in teeth!" said the judge.
Lily said she would use the prize - a season ticket for the Safari Park - to visit a very special friend.
