

GIGANTOSAURUS™

GIGANTO

A ROARSOME
LIFT-THE-FLAP
STORY
Based on the book by
JONNY DUDDLE

Early one morning, Bill, Rocky and Tiny watched while Mazu paced excitedly. She was waiting for Leena, Tori, Rolo and Zak to arrive!

YAWN!
My brain is still sleeping!

Just watching
you is making
me tired!

Mazu didn't just have a FUN-filled day planned but a FACT-filled day too!

What are we
teaching the dino
babies today,
Mazu?

As big dinos, it's
our job to show them all
the important things
they need to know!

Just as Mazu was about to explain her plan to her friends, the DINO BABIES arrived! It was VERY tricky to get the wiggly, wriggly dino babies to sit still . . .

BOO!

HE HE!

Let's get started!

Finally, the four friends had everyone sitting comfortably and listening carefully.

Today, we are learning the most special lesson of all . . . how to be the kindest dinos!

Mazu asked each big dino to teach the babies their favourite act of kindness. Firstly, Tiny led the little dinos to her arts and crafts table . . .

HA-HA!

I find the best way to show you love someone is to surprise them with a happy picture!

The dino babies smiled and nodded.

Before long, the babies were concentrating on painting beautiful pictures of their own.

LOVE!

WOW – you
learn fast!

Next, it was Bill's turn to teach the
dinos how to be caring.
So, he took them into the jungle and stopped in front of a delicious fruit tree.

YUM!

HUNGRY!

Can you think of
a better way to show
someone you care than
giving them a tasty
snack? I can't!

This time, the dino
babies knew exactly what to do. Rola and Leena carefully passed a pineapple to Tori and Zac.

SHARE ...

SNACK ...

That's right,
clever dinos!

CARE!

As Mazu guided the
babies out of the jungle,
there was a loud ...

CRAAAAASH!

AHHH!

Don't be scared,
tiny dinos! The best way to comfort your friends is ...

All the dinos huddled
around and gave Rolo
the biggest hug they could.

"Science says the best hug is made of open arms, a big squeeze
and best friends!" Mazu cried.

On the savannah, it was FINALLY Rocky's turn to show the babies
how to put everything they'd learnt into practice.

Suddenly, they heard another CRASH!

The little dinos
spun around and . . .

There's a GIGANTIC,
grumpy dino coming
this way, and he
needs your help!

... saw GIGANTO
stomping towards them!

Quickly, the dinos
gathered up their
things to show
Giganto how much they care.

PICTURE!

SNACK!

HUG!

"Hey Giganto,
don't be blue.
Just remember, we love you!" Rocky called.

Giganto gave a huge ROAR!
