JANA GLATT

Frog goes on an adventure, who knows where it ends?
He'll travel the world, and meet new friends.

Who will he meet, and what will he do?
Wait for me, Frog, I'm coming with you!

Into his plane, Frog carefully climbs.
He starts up the engine, and takes to the skies.

Landing down in the leafy forest below,
Frog smiles and says a warm 'Hello!'

where he greets his new friends with amphibian charm.

What could be better than a frog in flight?
Frog soars over the fields in the morning sunlight.

Soon it's time to set off on his journey once more.

Surely there would still be life to be found?

The plane lands safely on the mountainside.
Frog climbs out, stretching his limbs out wide.

From high up above, Frog spies a freshwater lake,

Can you find something beginning with S or T?

After a little rest, and feeling restored,
over grassy plains, Frog calmly soars.

He then heads down to the grasslands below,
where animals roam and wildflowers grow.

Can you find something beginning with U, V or W?

Back home safe from his travels, Frog makes a long list of the animals he met and those that he missed.

With a joyful croak, Frog writes to his friend.
After all of his travels, he has postcards to send.

Can you find something beginning with X, Y or Z?

... so he fires up his rocket and heads into space!

With his trip around the world now complete,
Frog thinks there could be no one else to meet.

But as he gazes up at the moon, Frog knows there is one special place ...
