

You ...

Emma Dodd

I love every bit of you,
your eyes and ears and nose.

I love every bit of you,
from your head down
to your toes.

I love your tumbles,
jumps and bumps,
your fidgets
and your wriggles.

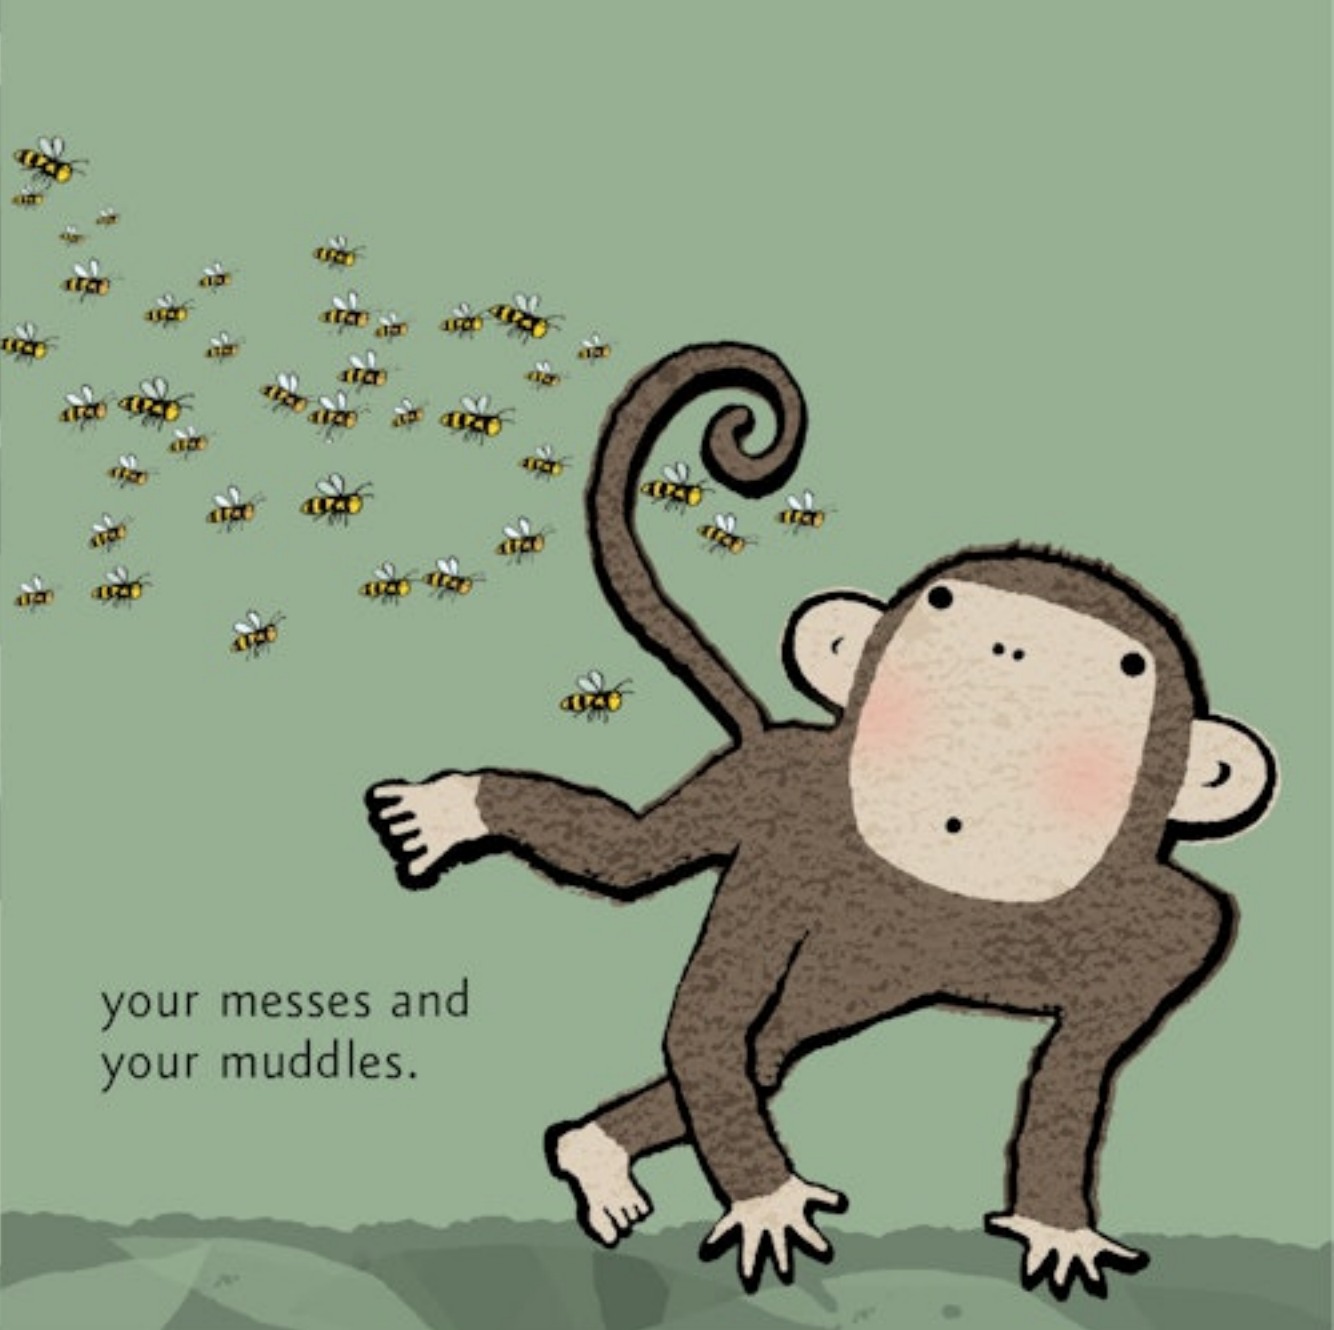

I love your smile,
I love your frown,
your whispers
and your giggles.

I love your games
of hide and seek...

your messes and
your muddles.

I love your bedtime
best of all –
its kisses and its cuddles.

I love you when you're having fun...

and when you're sometimes sad.

I love you when you're kind and good...

and even when you're bad.

Yes, I love every bit of you,
and this I know for sure...

with every day
that passes by...

I love you more and more!
