how their work was progressing - and he this every day - they were glad to see him

His name was General Jodhpur. He wanted to be the most famous general in the world and to have his army admired by generals from all the other countries. And so he kept his soldiers busy cleaning their weapons, pressing their uniforms, and polishing their badges and boots.

Every morning very early, as soon as the sun was up, the soldiers had to be out on the parade grounds smartly dressed ready to practise marching.

When they had finished marching, the soldiers divided into several groups. The cooks went to the kitchens to prepare the meals. The cavalry went to the stables to groom and feed the horses.
