Encanto (Disney Modern Classics)

MODERN CLASSICS

On the evening of her fifth birthday, a Colombian girl named Mirabel sat in the nursery of her home with her eyes closed, waiting to receive a very special gift.

"Open your eyes," Mirabel's grandmother, Abuela, said, revealing a magical gifting ceremony.

Mirabel gazed as beams of golden light reflected off her large, round spectacles and danced about the room.

The animation sequence for the program led out, highlighting key moments of the story. See: Disney Encanto.

Mirabel snuggled in close as Abuela Alma began to tell the story of the candle and the magic it had brought into their lives. This candle holds the magic given to our family," she said, and the story began.

Abuela told her granddaughter that the candle had been with her for many years. Light from the candle shone on her and Mirabel's grandfather, Pedro Madrigal, when they returned to their home. The same candle lit their way through the darkness when they were forced to flee their home because it was no longer safe. Others travelled with them, guided by the candle's light, hoping it would lead them to refuge.

But not all who followed the Madrigal's were friends. The violent man who had forced them from their homes was close behind. Mirabel's grandfather, Pedro, turned to face the danger and died in the fight.

Cradling her three infants in her arms, Abuela fell to her knees, lost in the darkness of her grief.

DISNEY ENCANTO

The design of the Madrigal's home was central to its magic, and eventually, the house began to decay, instead of being the same magical, changing and glowing over the years. See: Disney Encanto.

But in that darkness, Alma was given a miracle. The candle, which had guided them from their homes, became a magical flame that could never be extinguished. Alma reacted as the light from the candle transformed the land on which she stood.

Mountains rose and an abundant forest grew to shield Alma and the travellers from danger. From the bare earth at Alma's feet, a beautiful house emerged and came to life. It was a castle, a home filled with joy and magic – an Encanto.

As years passed, the magic of the candle stayed with Alma, protecting her children and the town it had built, but it had more in store.

MODERN CLASSICS

Seven years later, the very same Mirabel Madrigal woke in the very same nursery on the morning of her cousin Antonio's gifting ceremony. It was a busy day with lots to do, and Mirabel needed to get ready fast. Thankfully, Casita, the magical house, was happy to help. The fluorescent rugger Mirabel's shoes towards her feet, and as she got dressed, tugging clothes about the room, the laundry basket moved to meet them.

Mirabel's only member of her family without a magical gift. The feeling of isolation was the part of her future. See: Disney Encanto.

"Make your family proud!" Mirabel said to herself as she left her room to hasten her on her way, the blood stars of Casita transformed into a slide. Mirabel skidded down eagerly, biding good morning to a portrait of her grandfather Pedro in the present.

Mirabel and Casita got to work. Mirabel set the table for breakfast, as Casita threw wide its green shutters to let in the light of the day.

DISNEY ENCANTO

Outside, children from the town were excited about their friend Antonio's birthday ceremony. They called to Mirabel, asking her what Antonio's gift would be.

Mirabel told them that they would have to wait to find out, but that only made the children more curious. They wanted to know more about the magic, the ceremony and about Mirabel's own gift.

But Mirabel did not like to talk about herself. Today wasn't about her, it was about Antonio and the family, so instead she told them all about the amazing Madrigals.

The children in Encanto were inspired by Mirabel's words in the hidden region of Colombia, where Mirabel is set. See: Disney Encanto.

MODERN CLASSICS

As the Madrigals got ready for the day, Mirabel explained that she came from a family of stars. At their centre, Abuela Alma made sure everyone knew their place.

When the family left for work, Mirabel introduced them to the children, explaining each of their gifts.

First was her Tía Pepa who controlled the weather with her emotions. Mirabel also had a Tío Bruno who could see the future, but Bruno disappeared and nobody talked about him. Mirabel's mother, Julieta, could heal people with the food that she cooked.

Mirabel said that the family grew larger when her Tía Pepa married a man named Félix and had children, and when her mother married her father, Agustín and had Mirabel and her two sisters. The children were confused. They didn't know who were Mirabel's sisters and who were her cousins.

Mirabel explained that her cousins were Dolores, Camilo and Antonio. Dolores had the gift of being able to hear the quietest sounds and Camilo could shapeshift to look like other people. Mirabel said Antonio would find out his gift that evening.

Mirabel's sisters were Luisa and Isabela. Luisa was incredibly strong, Isabela could make flowers bloom wherever she walked.

Mirabel told the children everything she could but when she tried to leave, the children had one more question.

"What is your gift?" asked a little girl.

BELOVED CHARACTERS

THE GOLDEN AGE

Literary classics provided strong source material for a number of Disney films. Alice in Wonderland (1951) is Disney's version of classic Lewis Carroll children's novel; Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking Glass, and What Alice Found There. The books had fascinated Walt Disney since childhood. In the 1920s, they had loosely inspired his part animated, part live-action Alice Comedies and since then he had bought the film rights to the novel. Disney concept artist and colour stylist Mary Blair created exuberant, fantastical production artwork that inspired the look of the film. Music and songs hold the film's sequences together and propel the story along - the film features more songs than any other Disney film at the time. One of the film's most extravagant scenes, the Mad Hatter's tea party, was initially filmed in live-action to provide an aid to animators. Vaudeville actor Ed Wynn played the Mad Hatter and Wynn's extemporized voice track was so inspired it was used for the final film.

In 1913, Walt had seen a touring production of J.M. Barrie's stage play Peter Pan and, inspired by its combination of fantasy and swashbuckling adventure, acquired the film rights in 1939. As with Alice in Wonderland, Mary Blair created the signature production art for the film. Live-action footage was shot for the animators' reference, with the voice actors performing their roles. Meanwhile, the magic of Disney animation made the characters fly - Peter Pan even engages dastardly Captain Hook in mid-air sword fights. Tinker Bell, often represented merely as a spotlight in stage versions, became a fully realized character using actor Margaret Kerry and others, in her live-action model. Released in 1953, after nearly two decades of work and thousands of drawings, Peter Pan was an immediate success and has remained a beloved Disney classic.

Literary works have remained a source of inspiration. The Sword in the Stone (1963), a whimsical adaptation of T.H. White's novel about the Arthurian legends, was the first Disney animated feature film to include songs by the Sherman Brothers, who would later work on Mary Poppins (1964), The Jungle Book (1967) and many others. The Rescuers (1977), a tale of an international rescue organisation run by mice, was based on a book series by English author Margery Sharp. Cruella DeVil nearly became the main villain in the film, but in the end the animation team created the fiery tempered, diamond-obsessed pawn shop owner Madame Medusa. Some classic tales are updated in inventive new ways: Treasure Planet (2002) is a version of Robert Louis Stevenson's 1883 novel Treasure Island set in outer space!

Also, that's not how I would've made those webs, but I like what he did there. It must be some type of polymer. Cool. I've met more than one spider-guy, but I'm not sure how many there are.

PETER PARKER'S HOME LIFE

Peter Parker's life as a student and a superhero is a complex one. He has to balance his schoolwork with his superhero duties, and he often finds himself in difficult situations. This section explores the challenges he faces in his everyday life.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBOURHOOD SPIDER-MAN

Peter Parker got his powers when he was bitten by a radioactive spider at a science exhibition, which gave him the proportional strength, speed and endurance of a spider. He was also able to devise a formula for his webbing, a thin, glue-like substance that is strong enough to tie up his enemies and allow him to swing through New York, but which also dissolves after an hour. And his Spider-Sense, that warns of danger, allows him to stay one step ahead of his very large roster of villains.

Steve Ditko's design for the Spider-Man costume is brilliant in its simplicity and it's a testament to his work that the design has barely changed in 60 years. Spider-Man is identifiable from almost any part of his costume because of his bold and striking design, and the fact that the costume covers him completely means that readers can identify with him, as it could be anyone wearing the suit.

Spider-Man's early adventures are characterised by exciting battles with dangerous, experienced villains who contrast with Peter's youth and naivety. Spider-Man's priorities are different from other super heroes. In Amazing Spider-Man #1 he is primarily concerned with making money to pay for medicine for Aunt May. After finding it impossible to cash a cheque for his TV appearances made out to 'Spider-Man', he tries to join the Fantastic Four before finding out that the FF do not pay a salary.

One of the reasons that Spider-Man is so relatable is that we spend so much time in the hero's head. Stan Lee said, "one of the things that has, over the years, set Spider apart from other super heroes is the fact that he so often agonises over the hand that fate has dealt him [...] The of wall-crawler is considered by many to be the Hamlet of superheroism. In fact, people always ask what made me decide to give Spider-Man so many thought balloons, as we all call them in comic-book land because it seems nobody ever used thought balloons quite that way until Aunt May's neurotic nephew made the scene. Well, the reason is quite simple, really, in novels, a reader is usually privy to the protagonist's thoughts. That's what helps make characters come alive in our imagination; it makes us feel we know them. Likewise, in stage plays, and in comics as well, we can gain great insights into the characters by their conversation. But Spider-Man, alas, is a loner. When he's out wall-crawling or web-slinging [...] he's all by himself. He has no one to talk to at such times."<sup>1</sup>
