Jane Foster's Baby's First Stories: 3-6 months

A series that grows with your baby

- Written in consultation with Early Years Expert, Lizzie Noble, each book perfectly suits your baby's needs at every stage of their first year
- Fills a gap in the market: parents are told to read to their baby every day, but black and white books usually have little text. Reading aloud soothes babies from birth, promotes baby-carer bonding, builds children's language skills, and increases the chances that parents will continue to read to babies as they grow older
- Perfect for parents who use the Wonder Weeks App, read Your Baby Week by Week, or use milestone cards to mark big moments
- 4 books in the series, all featuring the same animal characters: 0-3 months; 3-6 months; 6-9 months; 9-12 months

In The Club

You Did It!

No matter how you gave birth, you should be so, SO proud of yourself and your body... You bloody did it!

Maybe you got the birth you wanted or maybe you didn't.

You might have feelings about the birth you'll need to work through later, but right now enjoy that soggy hospital toast and stewed cup of tea. You are a goddess (albeit a bloated, sweaty, exhausted one).

Some mums feel that overwhelming surge of love, some don't - and that's okay; it doesn't mean you won't.

All I remember thinking was 'Thank fuck that's over, can I go to sleep now please!'

In these first few days, everyone always asks about the baby. Remember to look after yourself too. You've just been through a monumental thing and your body probably won't feel like your own for a while, so be kind to it.

Until... Pop! The Bubble Bursts

The first few weeks (months) of being a new mum are relentless. You've been riding high on adrenaline and then you suddenly feel like you've been hit by a double-decker bus.

I remember sobbing on the phone to my mum in the first few weeks that I couldn't do it, that I felt so out of my depth and just physically and mentally exhausted.

You'll cry A LOT and worry about things you never knew you could. I was terrified that I would drop her, that she would get ill and I wouldn't know what to do, that the room was too hot, or too cold.

With all the stress and hormones, being a new mum is an emotional rollercoaster. Rest assured that every first-time mum feels overwhelmed. For most, it's the hardest thing they've ever done.

You probably won't believe it, but you're doing so well and every day will feel a tiny little bit easier.

Brighter days are coming.

If Looks Could Kill

Somewhere, new mums have this built-in function that makes them wake up at the slightest noise from the baby. We can go from the deepest sleep to *PING* wide awake in an instant.

Some people could sleep through a tornado. That's all I'm saying.

Five Things You Won't Believe

We were up every hour last night, you!

1. How little sleep you actually need

2. That you'd do anything to make them happy

172

4. How much you love them

3. How many times you can try unsuccessfully to leave the house

5. How fast it goes... WTF how is she one already?!
